Gov. Williams Jolts Kozlov In A 'Knockdown And Drag-Out' War Of Words

By William L. Ryan

Detroit (AP)—Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen Williams had what he called a "knockdown and drag-out fight" Tuesday night with visiting Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov on the question of Communist domination in Eastern and Central Europe.

An hour-long private discussion between the two also brought a statement from the Soviet visitor that the United States and Moscow are fairly close to agreement on nuclear disarmament measures, Williams told a news conference later.

The battle of words between the two was the second such jolt the Soviet visitor has received on his current tour. The first came last week in Washington when he tangled with Vice President Nixon in a lively argument over a point of history in Soviet-American relations.

The Williams-Kozlov clash began when the governor asked the visitor when, in view of Moscow's frequent talk of self-determination for peoples, the Eastern and Central European satellites might anticipate being able to have free and secret elections.

Williams said Kozlov, in a long answer, contended the people of the area had made their choice and anything to the contrary was just propaganda. Williams retorted he would "lay the facts on the table."

The governor recalled the mid-1953 revolt in East Germany, put down by Russian tanks, unrest in Poland, the crushing of the Hungarian revolt by Soviet arms, and added that certainly the people of Romania "did not feel their Communist regime represented them."

In reply, Kozlov pointed to Yugoslavia's Tito as an example of non-interference by the U.S.S.R. and added anything reported to the contrary was propaganda. Moscow's own propaganda has been carrying on a fierce feud with Tito over his refusal to bow to total domination by the Soviet Communist Party.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams

"I told him most of the people of the United States did not believe a single word he said," Williams reported.

At this point Soviet Ambassador Menshikov, who is accompanying Kozlov on his tour, seemed to be worried, Williams reported, and interrupted, telling the governor he was "all wrong."

"Look," Williams replied. "Who was in those tanks? The Russians! The Germans had only cobblestones. This is not self-determination."

The governor said Kozlov "was tough, but I intended to be just as tough."

Williams, serving his 6th term as governor, is backed by Michigan Democrats for the party's presidential nomination next year.

Williams asked Kozlov whether the failure of Moscow and the United States to agree on disarmament, surprise attack, nuclear tests and other problems was due not so much to the unreadiness of the U.S.S.R. to disarm but because Moscow feared effective systems of inspection could be used for subversive or espionage purposes.

"Instead of answering," said Williams, "he replied that the two countries are now fairly close to working out an agreement, but the Soviet Union was waiting for a reply from the United States on certain proposals."

Andrews Potentate Today

Lincolnite Will Be Installed As Head Of Mystic Shrine

Lincoln Star Special

Atlantic City, N.J. — Dr. Clayton F. Andrews of Lincoln will be inaugurated Wednesday as Imperial Potentate of the Mystic Shrine.

Inaugural ceremonies which make him top officer presiding over 810,000 members of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine were scheduled for 7 a.m. (CST).

Gov. Ralph G. Brooks arrived in Atlantic City by air to be present for the ceremony.

A pageant, depicting the life of Dr. Andrews, put on by Sesostris Temple of Lincoln, is to be presented in the gigantic convention hall on the Atlantic City boardwalk.

Reviews Marchers

Tuesday, Dr. Andrews reviewed uniformed units of 46 temples in North America. The units formed a 3-mile long parade, 5 hours in duration, that wound up on the boardwalk with a swing through convention hall past the imperial reviewing stand.

Especially popular in the parade which splashed an ocean of color along Atlantic Ave., were the uniformed groups of Lincoln's Sesostris Temple — the foot patrol, motor patrol, marching band, clowns and caliope.

Yacht Escort

A yacht parade, featuring more than 100 craft sailed along the seaboard to provide an ocean salute to Shriners who have invaded this resort city.

Many thousands thronged to downtown Atlantic City for the day parade of the temple uniformed units, virtually leaving the beach area deserted.

Even after the parade, various Shrine fun equipment of all sizes and sorts swept through the city bantering good-naturedly with residents.

Wednesday's inaugural ceremonies for Dr. Andrews climax activities of the Imperial Council, but many events were remaining on the calendar before the Friday wind-up.

Among them is an illuminated parade Thursday night on the boardwalk, in which Sesostris units will participate.

Twister Slashes At Gothenberg

... Damage Heavy In Center Of Town

Lincoln Star Special

Gothenburg, Neb.—A small twister swooped down on this community about 6:30 p.m. Tuesday causing extensive damage from severe hail and high winds estimated at 80 miles an hour during the height of the 20-minute storm.

U.S. Highway 30 was blocked for a time when the twister ripped the roof off the Janseen Hardware Store and scattered the debris onto the street.

Two other business houses were destroyed—Aden Standard Service and Larson Service Warehouse—as the main fury of the storm hit the center of the town.

The storm left the town in total darkness and many telephones were out of order, according to Warren Fisher, night dispatcher at the Police Department.

Trees were toppled throughout Gothenburg blocking a number of streets. Most television antennas were either twisted or blown off rooftops.

Windows were broken all over town by the hailstones.

Another Later

Fisher said another twister struck a mile north of Gothenburg a little later in the evening but no reports were available on damage or injuries.

There were no reported injuries in Gothenburg.

A short time before the storm hit Gothenburg it struck at Brady from where State Safety Patrol troopers reported power lines blown down and a tree tossed across a house. No injuries were reported there.

Considerable damage was reported to small grain crops in the Brady area from the hailstorm.

Hailstones

At Cozad, 11 miles southeast of Gothenburg, a little rain fell, accompanied by a few hailstones and some wind.

Meanwhile, at North Platte the temperature plunged 20 degrees in 10 minutes during a brief, vicious wind and rainstorm.

The storm, accompanied by light hail, downed power and telephone lines, damaged trees and broke windows.

An Associated Press dispatch said Memorial Hospital at North Platte was without power for 1½ hours. At least one large plate glass window was blown out during the storm.

Prior to the rain the temperature had been 90 degrees. Some 10 minutes later it was 70. Approximately .24 inch of rain fell during the period.

Rain Product Of Huskerland Air Chases

Moisture-laden cold air molecules were busy chasing warm air molecules from east to west across Nebraska Tuesday.

Result — showers for the southeastern part of the state by late Wednesday.

As the cold front moves eastward, cooler temperatures were predicted for the area behind it to the west and warm weather was expected to continue ahead of the front.

Wednesday highs were predicted in the 80s northwest and 90s southeast.

Rainfall expected Tuesday night caused Crete residents to cast an anxious eye toward the Big Blue which was expected to rise slightly on its upper reaches and bring an overflow of about a foot at Crete Wednesday.

Hike In Tangible Property Is 5%

... All Categories Show Increases

By Del Harding

The assessed valuation of tangible property in Lancaster County in 1959 is 5.19% higher than in 1958, according to figures released Tuesday by County Assessor Arthur M. Davis.

Davis also reported a 95% jump in the reported value of Intangible B property (stocks and bonds) and a 57% increase in the amount of Intangible A property (cash, book accounts, etc.).

Davis listed the assessed valuation of the county's tangible property at $208,686,255, compared with $198,381,595 in 1958. Under state law the assessed (taxable) value is 35% of actual value

Increases were reported in all 6 categories of tangible property. Here is a breakdown of the assessed valuation of tangible property compared with last year:

	1959	1958	Increase
Personal	$ 8,389,380	$ 8,186,345	$ 203,235
Business	19,069,400	14,770,975	4,298,425
Specials	23,930,100	22,214,365	1,715,735
Farm lands	30,000,700	29,700,975	299,725
Lincoln real	125,875,175	122,190,675	3,684,500
Towns & villages	1,421,300	1,318,260	103,040
Totals	$208,686,255	$198,381,595	$10,304,660

Real Estate Up 2.67%

Davis said the overall real estate valuation gain was 2.67%. Business valuation increased 29.10% and specials were up 7.72%, he said.

The value of Intangible B property was reported as $117,746,475, compared with $60,322,115 last year.

Davis said he believed a good part of the increase was due to the increasing value of stocks and bonds and because more persons are investing in them.

But he said stricter tax laws and an emphasis on enforcement no doubt also added to the total.

Intangible A amounted to $70,652,125, compared with $44,870,765 last year.

Not Available

Davis said valuations on building and loan stock was not yet available so it is not included in the Intangible B total. Last year it totalled $783,475.

Also not yet available were figures for railroads, franchise and pullman. They totalled $5,290,660 last year.

Davis noted that his valuation figures take into account the reductions in assessed valuation given property owners by this year's Lancaster County Board of Equalization.

The Board ordered a 15% reduction in the assessed valuation of all household goods and a 10% reduction in the assessed valuation of all business inventories, tractors and farm machinery.

The Board said the reductions were made to equalize these items with county real estate values.

Could Be Hiked

If the State Board of Equalization would decline to allow the reductions the county valuation would be increased accordingly.

The total actual value of the tangible personal property this year is $596,246,480, compared with $566,804,575.

Here is a comparison of the actual value figures with last year:

	1959	1958	Increase
Personal	$ 23,970,240	$ 23,389,560	$ 580,680
Business	54,484,020	42,202,795	12,281,225
Specials	68,371,735	63,469,625	4,902,110
Farm lands	85,716,280	84,859,925	856,355
Lincoln real	359,643,355	349,116,220	10,527,135
Towns & villages	4,060,850	3,766,450	294,400
Totals	596,246,480	566,804,575	29,441,905

Higher cattle prices are reflected on the county abstract.

This year there were 37,836 head of cattle reported compared with 38,425 last year.

Brooks Orders Strict Interstate Timetable

Strong Note To Cochran Says Problems Inherited From Ress

By Betty Person

Gov. Ralph Brooks Tuesday issued a strong directive to State Engineer R. L. Cochran setting out a strict timetable for work on the interstate highway in Omaha ordering that the work be speeded up immediately.

The directive was not critical of Cochran himself, but was sharply critical of "your predecessor" (L. N. Ress), and left no doubt that Brooks will spur construction of the super highway in Nebraska.

He told Cochran that similar directives will be issued "from time to time hereafter," and the Governor's office indicated the next such order probably will be a timetable on interstate work in the Lincoln area.

Briefly, Brooks ordered:

—The acquisition of all right-of-way necessary for the Omaha interstate program by Dec. 1, 1959.

That on or before Oct. 1, 1959, final preliminary plans must be approved and work initiated on construction drawings and specifications and bids must be obtained by Mar. 1, 1960 on 3 existing design contracts in the Omaha area: the interchange at 31st and Grover; the interchange at 28th and Dodge, and the interstate highway span between 31st and Grover and 28th and Dodge.

—Cochran to retain a competent consulting engineer to handle the preliminary design of the span on the interstate highway between the downtown bridge and the 28th and Dodge interchange, with instructions that preliminary designs be completed and all preliminary decisions made on or before Jan. 1, 1960 on this and the preliminary design of the downtown bridge across the Missouri River.

—The Missouri River bridge, interstate span to the Interchange at 28th and Dodge and the interchange itself, to be under construction contract on or before Aug. 1, 1960.

—That appraisers and negotiators must, immediately after acquisition of properties in the 31st and Grover areas, proceed into the area affected by the Dodge Street and bridge construction projects to acquire right of way.

—To proceed with preliminary plans, designs and specifications on the interstate highway span between 31st and Grover and the Spring Street bridge as well as the Spring Street bridge itself.

Brooks said he would expect a comprehensive report within the next 30 days concerning the status and availability of federal and state funds for these projects.

"This entire schedule is attainable through vigorous action on the part of an aggressive staff inspired by your experience and leadership," the governor wrote Cochran.

"If there is any tendency toward procrastination or reluctance to execute this program on the part of personnel so charged in this responsibility," Brooks continued, "I direct that they be replaced immediately by persons who will wholeheartedly and enthusiastically carry out this timetable."

Brooks commented that Nebraska ranks "third from last" in the nation on interstate highway construction—"this important activity which is so vital to our transportation, our safety, our de-

Collision Kills 5

Head-On Smash Injures 7

Gillette, Wyo. (AP)—Five persons were killed and 7 injured in a head-on collision near the city's eastern outskirts on U.S. Highway 14-16 Tuesday.

The dead were identified by coroner Leroy Noecker as Richard Kauffman, 22, of Rolf, Iowa; Bill Kizzair, 21, of Kimball, Neb.; Patricia Chew, 18, of Upton, Wyo.; Wilma Strong, 16, of Upton; and David Dean Rohrer, 20, of Payton, Ohio.

The 7 injured persons in the other car were a vacationing family from Kenosha, Wis. Mrs. Jane Ulrich, 31, was reported in critical condition at Campbell County Memorial Hospital.

Charles Ulrich Jr., 31, the driver of the car, and their 5 children were in fair condition. The 3 children were identified by authorities as Charles III, 7; Dorothy, 5; Nancy, 4; Mark, 3; and Betsy 1½.

The 5 persons killed were riding in a 1957 convertible. All died instantly.

The 3 men had been in the Gillette area several days doing odd jobs and looking for permanent employment. A friend, Albert Roberts, told officers he probably would have been in the death car, except that he had to work late.

Senate Raps Ike's Aid Bill

Previous Foreign Aid Backers Join $300 Million Arms Cut

Washington (AP)—The Senate rebuffed President Eisenhower twice Tuesday by trimming $383,500,000 from his multibillion dollar foreign aid bill.

By a 52-41 roll call vote it cut 300 million dollars from the $1,600,000,000 he requested for arms aid to America's free world allies.

Then, before abandoning work on the measure, it adopted, by a vote of 49 to 42, a second amendment cutting $83,500,000 from the 835 million dollars Eisenhower asked for economic supports to help allies maintain their armed forces.

The two cutting actions reduced the bill's total to $3,541,320,000 against the $3,909,400,000 Eisenhower asked and the $3,542,600,000 voted by the House.

Join Rebellion

Foreign aid supporters of previous years joined the rebellion against the program of military and economic assistance abroad.

The 300 million dollar cut in military assistance had the support of 40 Democrats and 12 Republicans, with 19 Democrats and 22 Republicans against it.

Forty-one Democrats and 8 Republicans supported the cut in defense support—economic assistance.

Eighteen Democrats and 25 Republicans voted to support the President.

Dr. Stone President Of Board Of Health

Dr. Frank Stone, Lincoln physician and surgeon, was elected president of the Lincoln-Lancaster County Board of Helth Tuesday night to succeed Dr. F. G. Laymon.

Vice president is J. Bernard Dresselhaus. Wendell Cobleigh was elected secretary.

DR. FRANK STONE

Dr. George Underwood, city-county health director, reported that his department spent $127,835.20 of an appropriated $136,900 during the 1958-59 fiscal year ending July 1. Expenditures, he noted, amounted to 93% of the appropriations.

June expenses amounted to $13,266.86, according to Dr. Underwood.

In other action, the board revoked the Grade A milk permit of William F. Brogmann, who operates a 19-cow dairy farm northwest of Lincoln. Brogmann, the board noted, had repeatedly failed to pass periodical inspections. Earlier he had been placed on temporary suspension, Dr. Underwood said.

A replacement to fill the vacancy on the board left by the mandatory retirement of Mrs. Lorenz Brauer of Waverly has not been selected. The appointment, Dr. Underwood said, is handled by the County Board. Mrs. Brauer formerly served as secretary.

There will be no August meeting of the board. This is usual procedure, according to Dr. Underwood, unless a meeting is deemed necessary by the members.

Stock Tax At Average Percentage Ruled Out

The state tax commissioner has no authority to direct that shares of all buildings and loan association stocks shall be taxed at a certain average percentage of the value, the attorney general ruled Tuesday.

The opinion, written by Assistant Attorney General Homer G. Hamilton, was requested by State Tax Commissioner Fred Herrington.

Attorneys for a building and loan association had filed a brief with Herrington in which they contended that the average percentage of valuation could be used.

Law Clear

The attorney general's opinion said, however, that the law governing taxation of such shares of stock passed by the 1959 Legislature (LB-701) was "clear and unambiguous and therefore not subject to any rule of statutory construction."

The law provides that shares of building and loan associations shall be listed by the owners who must pay a tax at the rate of 4 mills on the dollar of the actual value of the stock, less the proportion of the value of the stock invested in property otherwise taxed.

A survey made by the Tax Commissioner's office in March of this year has shown that various building and loan associations in Nebraska have invested different proportions of their assets in these deductible items which are otherwise taxed.

The opinion stated that the net result of that survey shows that some shares have "no value for purposes of taxation, and that in other building and loan associations, by reason of their type of investments, the taxable value is as high as 30% of the face value of the shares.

Obvious Result

"If the tax commissioner is allowed to arrive at an average of these percentages the result is obvious," the opinion continued, adding that "those who should be taxed at the rate of 30% of the value of the stock will be taxed somewhere in the neighborhood of 15% of such value."

The opinion said this "clearly violates the wording of the statute," adding that also some taxpayers would enjoy tax exemption on part of the taxable value of their stock in violation of the constitution which provides that no property shall be exempt from taxation except as provided in the constitution.

Slayer Of Girl Sought

Child's Body Is Found In Attic

Las Vegas, Nev. (UPI) — The ravished body of a 5-year-old girl, beaten and stabbed, was found Tuesday in the attic of a next-door neighbor's home, touching off a manhunt throughout the western states.

Police said the throat of Dolores Stafford, daughter of newspaper executive Toby Stafford, was cut with a 3-inch paring knife before her lifeless form was stuffed in the attic.

The search immediately began for the neighbor, Robert Kenneth Ervin, 21, a casino worker who disappeared Monday. Police described Ervin as "armed and dangerous."

Stafford, 44, said the child finished playing house with her 14-year-old sister when she walked into the back yard carrying her "Red Riding Hood" doll.

She was not seen again alive.

Separated

Police said they were told Ervin and his wife separated

Saturday. The woman was not home when the child apparently went next door, they said.

When there was no trace of the girl for an hour, the Staffords and police looked through the entire neighborhood, calling her by name. A tip from a co-worker of Ervin led officers to investigate his home.

Detectives said a trail of blood led to the top of the refrigerator, above which was the opening to the attic. They said the killer had to stand on the refrigerator to force the tiny body into the attic.

Neighbors called Ervin "surly and quiet." They told police the 5-foot, 3-inch, 120-pound man, longtime resident of Las Vegas, had been acting strangely of late.

Police said the exact cause of death had not been determined. They said an examination by doctors confirmed sexual attack on the child, and also said she had been beaten in addition to the slash across the throat.

County Attorney To Investigate Poles Too Close

A report that an Oklahoma construction firm installing telephone lines in southern Lancaster County has been leaving poles too near the roadway will be investigated by the County Attorney's office.

County Commissioner Ralph Harlan said at Tuesday's County Board meeting that he believes many of the poles placed along the road for later erection are too close to the travelled portion. He said a serious accident could result if a motorist struck one of the poles.

The Board then ordered the County Attorney's office to look into the matter.

The poles reportedly are being used in connection with work in the Hickman, Cortland, Firth and Martell areas.

Richard Miller Dies In LA; Funeral Friday

Funeral of Richard Dale Miller, 91, former secretary and director of Miller & Paine, who died in Los Angeles, Calif., Tuesday, will be Friday in Forest Lawn Cemetery in Los Angeles.

Born March 3, 1868, in Franklin County, Pa., Mr. Miller, came to Nebraska in 1882. In 1896 he moved to Idaho, returning to Lincoln in 1919 after serving with the Army Tank Corps in World War I between 1917 and 1919.

He served as secretary and director of Miller & Paine between 1924 and 1925. He moved to Los Angeles in 1926 where he was secretary and director of the Universal Consolidated Oil Co. of Los Angeles until his retirement in January of this year.

He was the brother of the late J. E. Miller, the founder of Miller & Paine Department Store.

fense and our economy."

This is particularly true in the Omaha area, Brooks said, noting that his office is receiving "severe criticism for lack of persistence, diligence and enthusiasm" in the initiation of interstate construction within Omaha's city limits.

Telecast Cited

"My attention has been invited particularly to a nationwide telecast of July 5, 1959, in which Nebraska's record of inactivity subjected our state to national disrepute," Brooks commented.

"I have little doubt," he wrote Cochran, "that this indecision and inaction, which characterized the administration of your predecessor, is greatly responsible for the fact that I today occupy the governor's chair.

"I know that you inherited these inadequacies," he continued, "and that they are not of your own making and are directly contrary to the decisive and progressive highway program which you exemplified and initiated in your previous service to the state."

In reference to the timetable, Brooks said he recognized it was an ambitious schedule, but one "well within the capabilities of an aggressive engineering department and I must insist that you advise all personnel under your direction that delays or deviations in this timetable will not be tolerated by you or me as responsible partners in this administrative team."

Escapee Held In Glenwood, Iowa Jail

Glenwood, Iowa (AP) — A 19-year-old who escaped from Nebraska officers at Seward, Neb., late Monday was back in jail at Glenwood Tuesday.

Cass County, Neb., sheriff Tom Solomon said Loren M. McPhelan of St. Joseph, Mo., was taken into custody after Cass County officers spotted him aboard a freight train and followed the train to Glenwood.

At Seward, sheriff Ray Welch said McPhelan was being returned from St. Joseph to David City, Neb., by the David City sheriff, Joseph Meysenburg and a deputy to face an assault charge.

McPhelan was not handcuffed, Welch said, and during a stop in Seward McPhelan slipped away, headed for a river bank and was later tracked to a railway bridge.

Solomon said that from an overpass he spotted McPhelan in a flat car.

Welch said he understood McPhelan did not intend to waive extradition.

New Kind Of 3 R's Treat For Nebraska In '60—Hanson

In 1960 "Nebraska will be treated to a new version of the 3 R's, Republicans Run Ragged," Democratic State Chairman Russell V. Hanson of Newcastle declared Tuesday in a statement released from the governor's office.

1958 Democratic victories "will be repeated in 1960 in far more convincing fashion at every level of national, state and county elections," Hanson declared in a statement answering earlier charges from his GOP counterpart, Richard Spelts Jr. of Grand Island.

Spelts had earlier stated that Democratic Gov. Ralph G. Brooks lost votes in counties where he was best known.

"Mr. Spelts needs a lesson in arithmetic if he considers the 1958 election to be a decisive rejection of Ralph G. Brooks," Hanson said.

"In the first place," he said, "he today bears the title of Governor, having wrested it from 18 years of Republican inactivity during the period in which Mr. Spelts was supposedly leading the Republicans."

Hanson then cited gains Brooks had made in votes over the number collected by Republicans in the 1956 election in the counties Spelts had listed as those in which Brooks lost.

The Democratic chairman said there was "additional information" of "refreshing gains" in Boone, Buffalo and Gage counties "all being areas in which Brooks lived and served the people."

He added that Spelts had made no mention of the 1,634 net vote gain by Brooks in Hall County over the 1956 Republican race, "which included a Democratic victory in Mr. Spelts' home city of Grand Island.

"Also overlooked," he continued, "was the fact that Gov. Brooks carried Lancaster County, home county of his opponent, by 3,390 votes, a total net gain of 9,429 votes in that important county for Gov. Brooks."

'59 Valuation Complaint Action Ends

The City Council as a board of equalization wound up hearings Tuesday on 1959 assessed valuation complaints.

Action on the remaining 10 of the 18 City complaints filed this year was taken.

Board action was:

Paul E. Grant, 2208 No. 56th, $4,500 assessed valuation, reduced $300.

M. E. Rolfsmeyer, 6201 Sumner, $6,950 no change.

H. Wayne, Sack, 6621 Leighton, $5,950, no change.

Roy F. Randolph, 2940 Williams, $9,450 on 247 So. 29th, reduced $1,000.

Merchants Investment Co., 3550 So. 48th, 3542 and 3524 So. 48th, and 4828 Calvert, $4,600, removed improvements of $3,100.

Dorothy Dee Hamilton, 7101 Leighton, $2,050, reduced $100.

Joe and Ruth R. Dennison, 1840 Twin Ridge Rd., $8,600, no change.

Theodore A. Shepherd, 2240 No. 61st, $4,600 no change.

William E. Robinson, 1809 Ryons, $8,850, reduced $1,000.

Mrs. Lewis Eddy, 5218 Lesington, $1,150, no change.

Steel Dispute Carried To Nixon

WALKOUT DEADLINE TO STAND

...Union Head Says

New York (AP) — The steelworkers union disclosed Tuesday it has carried its labor contract dispute direct to Vice President Nixon.

McDonald

David J. McDonald, steelworkers union president, said he told Nixon in Pittsburgh that as things stand now the union won't grant any new contract extension beyond the present midnight, July 14 strike deadline.

The union bowed 10 days ago to a bid by President Eisenhower to avoid a July 1 strike, agreeing to extend union-industry pacts for two weeks.

McDonald cleared up a mystery about his two-day absence from the steel-labor talks here. Arriving at Idlewild Airport, he said he took advantage of preliminary gatherings for the all-star baseball game to go to Pittsburgh to confer with Nixon.

McDonald said he plans to call the union's wage policy committee back into session here soon and under present conditions will not recommend any further contract extension.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, told reporters later that "with respect to Mr. McDonald's wanderlust," the union chief might do better staying in New York and paying attention to the negotiations.

Says Time Wasted

"We believe Mr. McDonald's time might be devoted more constructively by spending his time at the bargaining table," Cooper said. 'He has wasted precious time in his efforts to find a way around the officially designated and authorized bargaining team."

Cooper said the union is barging ahead on a route designed to "extract another round of inflationary wage and benefit increases from the industry by the usual compulsory route of a strike if necessary."

McDonald said he complained to the vice president about the "completely recalcitrant" attitude on the part of the industry in an effort of the indutsry in an effort to "break the union."

Excursion Boat Coming To Nebraska

The only large traveling excursion boat—the steamer Avalon—will come up the Missouri River in early September with visits Sept. 8 at Rulo and Sept. 9 and 10 at Nebraska City. The 4-deck 1,370 passenger Avalon has a steel hull and is partly glass-enclosed. It is due in Omaha Sept. 12, 13 and 14 for excursions.

Big Jubilee

Point Clear, Ala. (UPI) — They had a jubilee on Mobile Bay. It was the first of the summer.

A jubilee occurs when tide and current conditions alter the usual proportions of oxygen and salt content of the water. This dazes shellfish and bottom fish and they crowd into shallow beach areas.

Along the shore hundreds wade out and scoop up shrimp and flounder by the bucket full. Then there is feasting.

Silent Queen

Chicago (UPI) — Dentist Norman R. Olson, who replaced a tooth filling for Queen Elizabeth, said it was all terribly routine." "I called her 'your majesty' and we exchanged greetings," Olson said. "From there on it was just 'open' and 'close', 'open' and 'close'."

Important Game

Montgomery, Ala. (UPI) — The Alabama House of Representatives adjourned a 25-minute session Tuesday to watch the all-star baseball game on television.

Bureau Chief Resignation Is Voluntary

The voluntary resignation of Robert A. Pease as head of the State Accident Records Bureau was announced Tuesday by Robert L. Meyer, chief of the Traffic Engineering Division of the State Highway Department.

Meyer said the resignation was effective immediately and that Pease "suggested it first." The Highway Department official added, "We did not ask for it, nor was it intended to ask him for it."

Pease has pleaded innocent in Municipal Court to charges of bootlegging and selling liquor on Sunday.

Pease, who was employed as a part-time cab driver, was arrested Sunday by a Lincoln police officer on charges of alleged liquor law violation.

His position in state government has been filled temporarily by Mrs. Beverly Smith, a secretary in the records bureau.

Meyer said he didn't expect "any permanent arrangement" would be made in the office before August 1.

—Revolt Smashed—

39 Are Freed

Tear Gas Attack Subdues Convicts; Hostages Unharmed

Monroe, Wash. (AP)—A surprise tear gas attack, triggered by death threats and children's cries, smashed a 13½ hour revolt by 4 tough young reformatory convicts at dawn Tuesday and freed 39 hostages.

The hostages, including 12 women, 8 small children and 5 men visitors, were unharmed during the night of terror in which their captors strutted with bravado, waving butcher knives and long-tined forks.

The worst of the ordeal was the temporary blinding, burning effect of the powerful gas.

Also held in the abortive escape attempt by the rebels, who sought to flee to Canada 70 miles to the north, were 3 guards and 11 other inmates, who had been visiting with relatives.

One Freed Earlier

Another woman captive was released early in the uprising when she became ill.

The 4 desperadoes were clubbed and beaten into submission in a bloody, savage fight when armed officers broke into the barricaded visiting room where the holdouts were making their stand.

State Records List 6 Lincoln Polio Victims

Six of the state's officially recorded polio cases are from Lancaster County, State Dept. of Health officials said Tuesday.

Three more are tentatively diagnosed as polio.

The Dept. of Health reported 11 more polio cases officially added to their records, bringing the total to 27 cases compared to 8 for the same time last year.

Among the 11 newly-reported cases were two deaths, Mrs. Andrew Kaeding of Lincoln and Wayne Brooks, 23, of Fremont.

The polio cases added to the records, often after delays in receiving reports, included 6 paralytic, one nonparalytic and 4 unspecified.

Three of the paralytic cases were reported from Lancaster County, and one each from Washington, Holt and Douglas Counties. The nonparalytic case was in Seward County and 3 of the unspecified cases were recorded from Kearney County and one from Dodge County.

Lincoln General Hospital officials listed Robert Gibson, 16, of Falls City, in good condition. Gibson was admitted to the hospital late last week with a positively-diagnosed case of Polio. Also listed in good or fair condition are Mrs. Ruth Carmel, Larry Burton and Mrs. Janice Irwim, all of Lincoln, who are hospitalized at St. Elizabeth Hospital with polio.

Milk Products Take Price Boost Here

A price increase on many milk products became effective in Lincoln this week.

Quarts will go up one cent and gallons 6. Half gallons will stay the same at 45 cents.

Dairymen pointed out several factors which have resulted in the increase including the larger premium being paid producers effective July 1, and the increase in labor costs as well as the fact that much of the milk is being imported due to the shortage of supply here.

Wages Of Demagoguery

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

In case anyone is interested, the University of Nebraska is slipping. Give it time at the rate it has been going and it will soon be at the bottom of the educational heap — a struggling and ineffective focal point for dead-heads. None of us will live to see the day that there is no university, of course, but we could well see it destroyed, for all practical purposes.

This is what is happening through the resignation of such faculty members as Prof. Merton C. Bernstein of the College of Law. Mr. Bernstein is widely recognized in both the legal and educational profession as a young man with more than average ability. He has a fine command of the law and has shown at Nebraska that essential quality in teaching of being able to impart his knowledge to his students. But this is not enough for some narrow-minded people in public life in Nebraska who have succeeded in driving Bernstein from the state.

Again, Loss Of Quality

As a matter of fact, they don't care too much if the individual has either a command of his subject matter or the ability to transmit it to his students. What concerns these public officials is whether or not the professor belongs to the right political party and thinks as they believe he should think.

With a reputation like that, what kind of a faculty will Nebraska end up with over a period of years? Slowly but surely, the most outstanding members of the faculty will drift away from Nebraska. New faculty members will be added on a lower and lower intellectual and achievement level.

No faculty member worth his salt would think of working under conditions whereby his political or social actions were dictated as a condition of his employment. He would not think of working at an institution where the exploration of new ideas was taboo and where a politically minded Legislature could not rise above the infantile level of the least of its members.

May providence deliver us from the kind of a university a few of our public officials would like us to have. For this would be an institution wherein there would be no freedom of thought and no deviation from past and proven methods of procedure. This, naturally, means there could never be any improvement or originality at Nebraska. Nor would this institution dare to challenge the minds of those who labor there as students.

The student would learn the facts of life and the world about him but he would be wholly incapable of applying this knowledge in any constructive manner. He may do well on a TV quiz show but in the creative and changing world where we now live, he would be a dismal failure.

This is no stretch of the imagination or dissention in wild speculation. This, citizens of Nebraska, is exactly what is happening at Nebraska and Mr. Bernstein's case is living proof of it. It is nothing that time will take care of or that the university itself will handle.

It can be corrected only by an aroused public which demands of its university the fortitude and courage to deal effectively with the problem. It is the same kind of public interest which must be shown in the election of state senators with enough character and mental capacity to see the danger in current developments and to do something about it. Do not be misled into believing that Mr. Bernstein's leaving is proof of the sagacity and fairness of his critics. He is leaving Nebraska purely and simply because the atmosphere here is not conducive to free learning.

Public Interest Only Way

He is leaving because we elect and permit politically minded legislators and other public officials to attack and destroy a man's professional reputation without cause. He is leaving because we have failed in our responsibilities and lost sight of the fundamental principles on which an outstanding educational institution is built. The only hope in his case is that it shocks us into an awareness of what is happening.

O'er The Land Of The Free And The Home Of The Resident Colonial Subjects

Dark Cloud On The Horizon

The Agricultural Marketing Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture has issued a serious warning of a probable price decline on hogs next year.

The word "dire" was used but largely because of the political connotations of poor farm prices during an election year. But that is a matter for the major political parties. For the Nebraska farmer it is a warning that routine diversification too frequently is a method for running the surplus out of one corner into another. True diversification relieves a pressure point without creating a new one.

The fundamental fallacy of the current farm policy is in its failure to adhere to the parity formula and to get its surplus control by production cuts. Demolishing fair grain prices expands the surplus and provokes false inducements to glut the livestock market because cheap grain offers the short range promise of recovering its value through livestock feeding. Such a thing becomes a vicious circle until the entire price structure decays and the farm crisis becomes total.

As a punitive expedition the administration's farm policy is a notable success but sooner or later some fresh thinking will have to be marshalled in order to save the agricultural establishment.

Auditorium Not A Loss

Two things should be understood by Lincoln people in connection with the appropriation of tax funds for the operation of Pershing Municipal Audiotrium. For one thing, it was little more than a dream to begin with that the building would be self-supporting. It was only this way for its first few years as a result of building funds used as an operational cushion.

But there should be no basic disagreement with the use of tax funds for the auditorium. This building should have enough community-wide benefits to make the use of tax funds justifiable. There may be some question, however, as to whether this is now the case.

It seems as though the facility now is going unused for too much of the time. The concept behind the auditorium should develop it as the cultural and entertainment center of the city. It should be the means by which the people of Lincoln have activities made available to them that they might not have otherwise had. It should be a place where groups, small and large, can go for the holding of various functions.

The auditorium should not be what it has been since it was first opened—a hoped-for profit-making institution. Some things are intended to make a profit and some are not. We don't expect to make a profit on the University of Nebraska, on the city parks, on the state highway system or the public libraries.

But we expect from these things to gain something in the personal lives of all of us. We expect that our lives shall be, by virtue of these institutions and facilities, a little fuller and more meaningful in a cultural way. What the city and the auditorium board of managers should do is forget about making money on the building and concentrate on the use of the building for a wide variety of purposes.

Find out what other local government bodies such as the parks or the library could do with such a facility by way of public service. Find out if there are not a number of community groups which could put the auditorium to good use if the profit motive was not an essential consideration. It should not become a governmental administrative headquarters but the building is too valuable to waste with emptiness.

The Prophetic Soil Bank

The Wall Street Journal which is, understandably, a publication dedicated to the defense of other interests than farming, is perturbed by the deleterious effects of the soil bank program.

It sent its newshawks into Minnesota and found the implement dealers there in lamentable condition. The small town dealers explained that the government had ladeled out some $12.50 an acre to take farm land out of production. The evil farmer had taken the money, closed down his farm, and proceeded to the nearest town where he is competing with labor on a cut-price wage basis. Even worse, when the work runs out, as it always does when the labor market is glutted, these same farmers are going on unemployment security, therefore becoming subject to two government handouts. Meantime, several implement dealers have gone out of business for lack of customers and one who regularly did a $200,000 a year gross is down to $70,000 a year.

The Wall Street Journal sympathized with the stricken dealers and called for an end to the vicious federal program which was hurting business.

This could be a story of faraway places, but to some extent the same business pains are being felt in Nebraska's rural communities where merchants of many kinds are complaining about the decline in business due both to curtailed farm production under the soil bank and to the departure of customers who formerly were active producers.

The effects described by the Wall Street Journal are all true, but the story, as told, is only half finished.

What has happened in a small way under the soil bank is prophetic of a much worse situation should the Eisenhower-Benson doctrine of farm relief run its full course. It is based on the conviction that there are far too many operators of family sized farms, leading to the conclusion that federal farm props are only prolonging the rationalization of the farm problem. The thing to do is to get the government out of the picture, let prices fall to calamatous levels thus forcing quite a few million farmers off the land. Then everything would be hunky dory. Well it won't be.

If a limited and subsidized eviction of producing farmers, such as the soil bank effects, is causing business pangs, one can imagine what would happen if a mass emigration from the farm without any federal cushion would do not only to small town business itself, but to entire communities as well as to states like Nebraska whose economic life depends upon a solvent, fully populated farm industry.

Long's Freedom Self-Destructive?

Washington —It would surprise no one in the know regarding Louisiana politics if cronies of embattled Gov. Earl Long weren't deliberately releasing him from hospital care in order to hasten his exit from political life or even from this terrestrial scene altogether.

The real fact is, the governor is quite a sick man. And continued activity can only cause a serious, prolonged breakdown—or even his death.

The doctors who have examined the governor know this. So do his closest friends. He was examined many times while in the hospital. The examinations showed that Long had suffered a series of small strokes. Unless he is required to take complete and prolonged rest this could result in rapid deterioration of all his bodily functions.

Instead of this rest, the governor is holding press conferences at the rate of two and sometimes three a day; made 40 telephone calls from his bed in one evening, some of them from an oxygen tent, and is planning campaign speeches and extensive trips.

In private talks with his psychiatrists, the governor has made remarks about his close associates, which, if true, could send them to jail. In a state where Long's brother, Huey the Kingfish, died of an assassin's bullet, anything can happen; and it would surprise no one if Earl Long's release was not a calculated plan to get him out of the way.

It hasn't flared into headlines yet, but the Democratic revolt against elderly Speaker Sam Rayburn in the House of Representatives is very much like the revolt against elderly Chancellor Adenauer in Germany.

Both indicate that the older a man gets the more autocratic he gets. Both are putting blemishes on the great careers of two much revered elder statesmen.

Young turk Democrats in Congress want to keep their rebellion secret, but it's building up steam in regard to education, a labor bill, and particularly an increase of interest rates on government bonds. This was what suddenly caused the Ways and Means Committee to stop the so-called interest rate "compromise" dead in its tracks.

Demo Rebellion Gathers Strength

WASHINGTON—What has been only a prospect for the Democratic national convention next year is rapidly becoming a probability. It is that national and state leaders will make a concerted effort to get rid of the congressional image in the convention scene, platform and presidential slate.

In the strongest language he has used so far, National Chairman Paul Butler has returned to the attack on the Democratic Congress for what he sees as its failure to develop winning issues for 1960. The public retorts from the Capitol indicate the bitterness felt by Senate Leader Lyndon Johnson, who is himself a candidate for president. Speaker Sam Rayburn, a hardened warrior, is not happy but lacking the same soaring personal ambition is not and probably will not become envenomed.

The real jitters are developing among the other senators who want to be president. There is absolutely no profit for them in a party-splitting struggle between local leaders and the congressional caucus. Even if the caucus should win it—which is doubtful because it is dominated by Southerners—the beneficiary must necessarily be the Texan they managed to elevate to the leadership.

There is no available measure for the extent to which Butler is speaking for the party. A liberal minority in the House and Senate majorities agree with him, though common prudence dictates that it must not get too far apart from its legislative leaders.

One significant test has taken place. It was the selection of Los Angeles as the site of the convention, a choice opposed by Rayburn, Johnson, Senator John F. Kennedy and a number of—though not all—the old pros on the national committee. Butler won that one handily with his western allies who thereby underscored their own determination to have a much larger voice in party affairs.

Butler seems firmly entrenched for the duration of the struggle. He has traveled widely and worked hard; there is no sign of an effort to replace him. The men who will run the convention are of his choosing.

Some Democrats view with alarm his obvious determination to force the fight against "Johnsonian moderation," as Senator R. Vance Hartke of Indiana has called it in a fragrant bouquet for his leader. Others suggest that it will furnish the convention with a vigor and sparkle none of its numerous candidates have thus far managed to evoke.

Much of the discussion here is directed at the question of whether any congress, dominant majority, can do more than Johnson and Rayburn have sought to do. The speaker certainly believes that in getting the best laws he can on the statute books he has fulfilled his party obligations as well as doing his duty. He worked hard for Democratic presidents and he does not propose to trespass against what seems to him the presidential prerogative and duty of governing.

Perhaps because he is so active and so ambitous, Senator Johnson's role is much more controversial. He has never been the Senate majority leader under a Democratic president and has no record of the Rayburn sort to show.

MARQUIS CHILDS

Kennedy Early Front Runner

WASHINGTON—"There is a tide in the affairs of men which if taken at the flood" . . . it is this point of flood tide that the backers of Senator John F. Kennedy today insist leads almost inevitably to victory for their man at the Democratic convention one year from now.

Naturally part of this is the psychology of the bandwagon, impelling Democrats to climb aboard while there is still time to be a charter member of the Kennedy for president club. But in terms of the intensive drive being pushed at every level for at least a year and a half or two years it also has an underlying reality.

Kennedy's candidacy has advanced while his rivals have stood still or moved very little. That is the fact which encourages the Kennedy managers to believe the momentum is becoming irresistable. By the simple geometry of politics a front runner can be overtaken only by a rival who has himself shown speed and strength.

A threat still hanging over the Kennedy candidacy is the favorite son development in state after state. Out of this could come a freeze of delegate strength. Then, with the heads of delegations from big states coming to the convention ready to trade, an outside choice — say Adlai Stevenson or Senator Lyndon Johnson — could be picked.

☆ ☆ ☆

The clincher, as Kennedy knows full well, is triumph in one or two Democratic primaries. His present intention is to go into Ohio or Maryland. He would take a win in Ohio as proof of his pulling power with farmers who have looked with skepticism on the candidacy of a young man from Boston who has not always voted for the embattled sons of the pitchfork.

When he was in Columbus

recently, Kennedy talked with Governor Michael DiSalle about the Ohio primary. DiSalle advised him to postpone his decision, pointing out that the filing date for entry is not until next February, with the election itself in May.

He could probably take Maryland and this would be a useful demonstration. But Ohio is more important for Kennedy and he will go back there in the fall to make a final decision. His present feeling is to stay out of Wisconsin. He must of necessity contest in Oregon, since any candidate can be entered with or without his permission, and he feels his chances are good there.

While he has powerful backers there are no signs that Senator Stuart Symington of Missouri has yet taken hold. Senator Hubert Humphrey's geographical limitations based on his Minnesota origins are more and more apparent. Senator Lyndon Johnson of Texas has gained important supporters, but they regard him as a fallback candidate in the maneuver to stop Kennedy. As majority leader in the Senate, Johnson is being criticized for taking a neutralist line which with Northern Democrats adds to his southern handicap.

Thus the Kennedy candidacy stands out conspicuously on the rather flat and unexciting political landscape. Between the legend and the reality, difficult if not impossible to separate, it is a fascinating phenomenon.

The legend has these elements: The Kennedy apparatus is far flung, all-persuasive. Kennedy has a command staff in each of the 50 states. At least $1,000,000 has been spent so far. The operation is masterminded by his enormously wealthy father, Joseph P. Kennedy, who is determined that one of his three sons shall be the first Catholic president of the United States.

All of this the Kennedy managers emphatically deny. They say the elder Kennedy has no connection with his campaign. There are no paid state Kennedy workers. Strong partisans, such as Governor Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut, are voluntary apostles. When it comes to spending money Hubert Humphrey has more men on the road at greater cost than has Kennedy, according to the Kennedy managers.

This past week end Kennedy has been in Hawaii, campaigning for Democratic candidates running for the first time for Senate, House and governor. Twelve to 14 hours of flying time each way for two days of politicking is a chore he takes in his stride.

At 42, with his unruly shock of hair, Kennedy still looks like a Harvard graduate student out to get his PhD. in political science. But he is in fact a formidable contender for the presidency.

New York—Our relations are worsening with the Philippines, the only democracy and only Christian country in the Asiatic world, and the most loyal of our allies in World War II. The Little Brown Brother is browned off at us. He is hurt. For four centuries under the Spanish and for half a century under us he lived off the fulfilled pledges and promises of the Great White Father. Now, prodded by a sense of independence, a hunger for what he considers just compensation, and the militant nationalistic voice of Sen. Claro Recto, the most articulate of the anti-American voices, the Filipino is asking questions which the U.S. Congress seems in no mood to answer.

He feels we owe him about $800,000,000 and that it isn't accurate for us to complain that we've helped the islands with a couple billions since independence. Double bookkeeping rears its head, he feels. But more than money is involved. There's a question of sovereignty, and pride. The constitution we provided for the Philippine nation requires its government to give Americans in the islands full and equal rights with Philippine citizens.

Foreign Minister Felix Berto Serrano and U.S. Ambassador Chip Bohlen are engaged in a delicate question if when an American soldier who commits a crime in the Philippines is on or off duty; how a Filipino can sue an offending American who has returned to the States; why the U.S. finds it easier to pack its bad ones home rather than let them face Philippine justice. The Serrano-Bohlen talks have not always been cordial, and the ambassador's brushes with Recto have been considerably less.

The fiscal rap against the U.S. boils down to this, earnest and worried Filipino friends tell me:

When Gen. MacArthur made good his historic pledge to return, he approved Executive Order 22, signed by President Quezon, guaranteeing Filipino service men pay equal to that of American troops and officers. Secretary of War Stimson asked MacArthur to try to rescind the order. The general refused. Then Washington wouldn't back up

'CHIP' BOHLEN
. . . cordiality sometimes missing . . .

MacArthur's revered "chop" or imprimatur, and the battered Philippine government had to shell out about $200,000,000 to make good the promise of the Great White Father. It wants it back because MacArthur signed as supreme commander of its forces.

Years earlier, a special broadcast by President Roosevelt to the beleaguered Filipino freedom fighters had said, "Everything will be restored, down to the lowest Nipa hut." It was a rallying cry which succeeded in strengthening the resolve of the Philippine people to resist the Japanese invader.

In time, Congress authorized sums covering 75 per cent of the value of property destroyed in battles between Japanese and Filipino guerrillas, in U.S. air raids against Japanses-held strong points in the islands, and finally in U.S. and Filipino battles against Japanese positions. But prices had risen, and the appropriated money covered only 52.5 per cent of the replacement cost. There followed a promise to make up the difference, and many Filipinos borrowed money to rebuild, against the day when Washington would come through. Washington didn't.

Before the war, we exempted the Philippines from processing taxes on the sugar they sent to us. Since then we've been collecting such taxes, even though, by treaty, we said we'd never.

Veterans of Bataan and Corregidor and the hills complain that they were never paid for their years of penal servitude as POW's after capture or the salaries due them as part of the American Army assigned — by radio orders from MacArthur and Wainwright — to continue operations as guerrillas. In settling our account with a people who were terribly racked, we listed as a benefaction the cost of equipping them to fight — and die — for us.

The Philippines hope to expand industrially, rid themselves of the cross of an economy anchored to the whims of sugar and copra. The Import-Export bank, with the job of seeing that would-be debtors present only puncture-proof applications and pay up as soon as possible, has turned down a steel-mill deal which an American company wanted to put into the Philippines. The West Germans and the Japanese — of all people — now offer more liberal terms.

The Russians, naturally, are interested in the Philippines, too. So far they haven't gotten to first base. But they are very patient.

Admiral Yarnell Dies, 83

Former Commander Of Asiatic Fleet

Newport, R.I. (AP) — Adm. Harry E. Yarnell, U.S.N. (Ret), commander of the Asiatic Fleet when the Japanese bombed the gunboat Panay, died Tuesday at the Newport Naval Hospital.

Adm. Yarnell was 83. The cause of death was not announced. He had been hospitalized two weeks.

Yarnell, holder of the Navy Cross and the Distinguished Service Medal, the latter presented personally by President Roosevelt, retired in 1939. He returned for special duty with the Navy in Washington after the outbreak of World War II.

He participated in every shooting war involving the United States from the time of his graduation from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1897 until his retirement.

His 4 decades of service at sea and on shore duty encompassed service under fire in the Spanish-American War, the Philippine Insurrection, the China Relief Expedition during the 1900 Boxer Rebellion and World War I. He took part in the occupation of Vera Cruz in 1914.

He was instrumental in bringing about the payment of $2,200,000 indemnity by the Japanese after the Panay incident on the Yangtze in 1937 and the United States' firm policy in the Far East came to be known as the "Yarnell Policy."

Through the turmoil of the undeclared Sino-Japanese War, he adhered rigidly to the policy he related in his rejection of a Japanese warning that American nationals and warships be evacuated from the harbor of Swatow, South China.

'Protection'

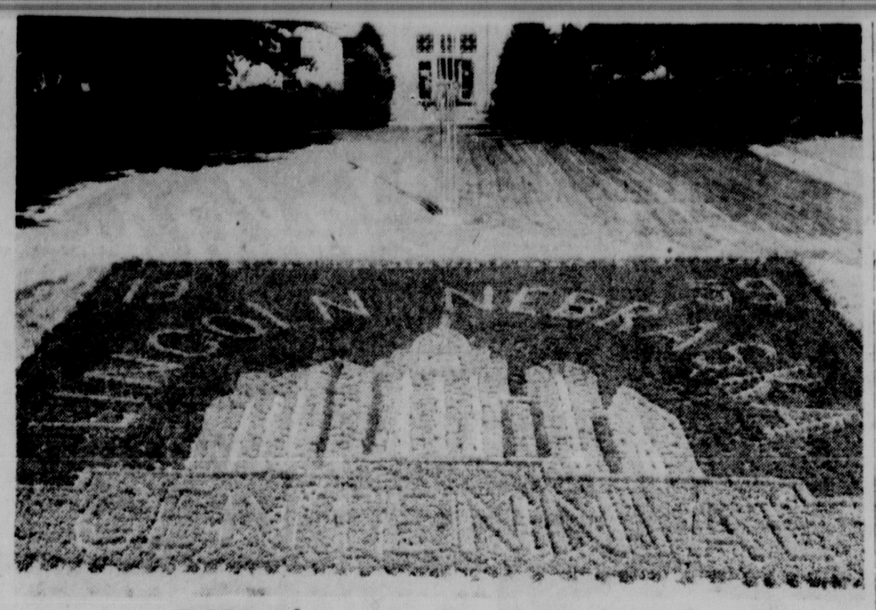
"The paramount duty of United States Naval vessels is the protection of American citizens and they will go wherever it is necessary at any time to carry out that mission," he said.

He said there was nothing heroic in his refusal to evacuate in 1939, "That's just Naval policy."

He retired as a real admiral in 1939, but was appointed a full admiral by President Roosevelt in 1942.

After World War II Adm. Yarnell criticized the unification of the armed services as "dangerous to efficiency."

He termed the use of atomic bombs against Japan "a diabolic act" and said "the United States lost the moral leadership of the world when it dropped atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki when Japan was at that time a defeated nation and was suing for peace."



7,000 Plants In Centennial Seal

Seven thousand plants have been used by the Lincoln Park Department to create a floral replica of Lincoln's Centennial Seal in the Antelope Park gardens at 1300 So. 27. According to James Ager, park superintendent, the 750 sq. ft. floral seal is composed of red, green and brown alternantheria and gray santolina. (Star Photo.)

American Bus Plans To Sell Part Of Line

American Bus Lines, shut down by a strike for a year, has applied to the Colorado Public Utilities Commission for permission to sell part of its system, the Associated Press said Tuesday.

The proposed sale would transfer ownership of American's Denver-Billings-Cheyenne-Rapid City route to Denver-Colorado Springs-Pueblo Motorways, Inc., for $406,296.

An American official in Denver said similar petitions have been filed with the Federal Interstate Commerce Commission and public utility regulating agencies in Wyoming, Montana, and South Dakota.

American Bus Lines has its headquarters in Lincoln, and when operating, serves 29 states. It's operations were stopped July 1, 1958 by a strike called by the Amalgamated Assn. of Street, Electric, Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America.

In Lincoln, A. F. Baldus, vice president of American, said that the proposed sale would "not affect" Lincoln employes of American Bus Lines.

Swim Pool OKd On Second Try

Lincoln Star Special

Syracuse, Neb. — A $45,000 bond issue for a municipal swimming pool won approval Tuesday from Syracuse voters.

The proposal, defeated at the polls two years ago, came out on top by a vote of 370 for to 190 against. Approximately 100 more persons turned out to vote Tuesday than two years ago, according to Mayor P. A. Epley.

Site for the swimming pool has not been selected as yet, the mayor said.

Woman Reported OK After Slashing Wrists

A 26-year-old Lincoln woman whom police said apparently slashed her own wrists early Tuesday morning was reported in good condition at a local hospital.

Police said they found the blood-spattered woman walking near 27th and Holdrege. She reportedly gave no reason for the slashing.

Navy Begins Search For Possible Conflicts Of Interest In Old Officers

Washington (AP) — The Navy has started its own search for possible conflicts of interest on the part of retired officers now working for defense contractors, congressional investigators were told Tuesday.

Deputy Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr., appearing before a House subcommittee beginning hearings on alleged influence and pressure in weapons buying, said the Navy is looking into about 300 cases.

He said they were the only ones turned up by a poll of 4,200 retired officers which showed "some possibility of conflict."

An exchange between Gates and Subcommittee Chairman F. Edward Hebert (D-La) indicated the congressional investigation may focus on former officers now holding top jobs in private business.

Gates said, under questioning about regulations barring retired officers from acting as salesmen in dealings with their old services, that "probably the greatest salesman in a company is the pesident."

"Suppose he's chairman of the board?" Hebert asked.

Gates laughed and said when a man is chairman of the board, "He has been kicked upstairs."

"I think we're getting somewhere," Hebert remarked.

Gates said retired officers should not be barred from all employment by industry. Although a number come to see him, he said, "I never had any retired officer exert any pressure on me to do something for him specifically."

Hebert said some officers would be called to testify and their selection would not imply any preconceived opinion by the subcommittee, which is seeking information by questionnaire on all retired officers working for industry.

2 More Plan Missile Site Entry Try

Mead, Neb. (UPI) — Two more members of the Omaha Action pacifists' organization plan to attempt to gain entry to the Air Force missile launching site here Wednesday morning.

Five other members of the organization, which is using "acts of civil disobedience" to protest the construction of the missile base, have attempted to gain entrance to the site. All five were arrested and sentenced to jail for attempting to enter restricted territory.

Donald Fortenberry, 26, Adrian, Tex., and Bradford Lyttle, 31, Chicago, will attempt to enter the base Wednesday.

U.S. Securities To Provide High Return To State

State Treasurer Richard Larsen said Tuesday he has purchased $2 million in short-term federal securities receiving one of the highest returns ever for the state.

The 258-day federal bills, which mature March 22, 1960, will earn the state $58,112 which will be deposited into the general fund.

The state received a 4.06 per cent return on $1,600,000 which will earn $46,432, Larsen said, and 4.05 per cent on $400,000 which will earn $11,680.

Nobel-Winning Surgeon Fights Dismissal Order

Duesseldorf, Germany (UPI)—A Nobel-prizewinning surgeon famed for his work on the human heart said he would fight a hospital order dismissing him from his post. He accused the wife of a cabinet minister of conspiring against him.

Dr. Warner Forssmann, 1956 winner of the Nobel Prize for medicine, accused enemies of "intrigue" against him and vowed to carry his case to the Duesseldorf labor court.

The Evangelical hospital dismissed him effective next Dec. 31 as its surgeon, a position he received after he was awarded the Nobel Prize.

Pair Selling Securities Get Prison Terms

Two men convicted of selling securities without a broker's or salesman's license have been sentenced to prison, state director of banking E. N. Van Horne reported Tuesday.

The two are Warren M. Scherer, formerly of Pilger, Norfolk and Tucson, Ariz., and Ralph R. Neudeck, formerly of Iowa and Norfolk.

Van Horne said Scherer was sentenced to 45 years in prison and fined $1,000 and costs, and Neudeck was sentenced to 25 years and fined $1,000 and costs.

Both are in the Nebraska Penitentiary.

They were tried in the District Court in Cuming County. Scherer was charged with 9 counts of selling securities not authorized for sale by the department of banking, and Neudeck on 6 counts with the sale of securities not authorized by the department.

Both were charged with selling securities without licenses.

The securities involved consisted of undivided fractional working interest in an oil and gas lease on real estate located in Montana and stocks of the French Creek Mining Co. of Montana.

Sentences and convictions of both were affirmed by the Nebraska Supreme Court after the defendants appealed, Van Horne said.

Lincoln Airport Proposals Asked

. . . City Authority Seeks Cost Of Plans, Estimates

The City Airport Authority has called for engineering proposals by next Tuesday on the cost of developing preliminary plans and estimates for a new municipal airport east of the city.

Interested engineering firms were invited to submit fee proposals also on the engineering cost for development of either the east site or a second runway at the Lincoln Air Force Base with expanded municipal facilities.

At its meeting Tuesday, the Authority was informed by Executive Director Rolland Harr that application for federal aid for airport development must be made by Sept. 1.

Harr said the State Aeronautics Commission should have the application at its Aug. 19 meeting for discretionary federal funds.

An Air Force report concerning the Authority's proposal for a second runway at the air base has not yet been received.

Adopt Gas Fee

In other action, the Authority adopted a 2 cent per gallon gasoline flowage fee at Union Municipal Airport. It is expected to bring in $3,500 annually.

Also approved was insurance coverage of $1 million for public liability and fire, wind and extended coverage for $400,000 worth of buildings and contents at Union Municipal Airport.

The Authority said the insurance coverage, costing $7,000 annually, was necessary protection under the terms of the airport lease.

The Authority established its fiscal year as beginning July 1 and ending June 30 in preparation for an audit and the 1959-60 budget.

The proposed budget is expected to be presented at the special meeting next Tuesday.

All of the Authority directors were present for the meeting.

519 Ag Workers Placed In Jobs

The State Division of Employment Security said 519 agricultural workers were placed on farm jobs the past week.

The division said the demand continues virtually statewide for experienced farm workers.

Beet hoeing is rapidly nearing completion and sugar beet workers are being referred to other areas of demand.

The division said the need for hay hands is increasing in the western part of the state.

26.2% More Power Produced This Year

Columbus, Neb. (AP) — The Loup River Public Power District's two hydroelectric plants produced 26.2% more electricity in the first 6 months of 1959 than in the same 1958 period.

Nebraska Public Power System said total output of the two plants was 84,413,000 kilowatt hours.

SEN. MARVEL SUGGESTS STATE SENATORS NEED ASSISTANTS

Hastings, Neb. (UPI) — State Senator Richard D. Marvel, Hastings, has proposed help for members of the state Legislature.

Sen. Marvel said that one of the solutions to Nebraska's Legislative process, which he described as "at crossroads," is "help for the individual senators, such as research assistants."

He said, "A senator has too much to digest with 739 bills on several hundred subjects being offered. He should know what is going on."

Marvel also proposed increasing the number of senators on each committee to nine and making it more difficult to introduce legislation after the first 20 days of the session.

The Hastings senator disagreed with proposals to redistrict the state and increase the number of senators, giving Omaha and Lincoln more seats.

Education Lags

Mexico City (AP) — Mexican children quit school in increasing numbers after their first year, an Education Ministry shrvey shows. According to its figures, 2,399,000 children enter the first grade each year. This drops to 1,247,000 the second year, 825,000 in the 3rd and by the 6th it is down to 252,000.

Eskimos Buy 'Em Now

Montreal (AP) — The old joke about selling refrigerators to Eskimos is no longer a joke, according to anthropologist Dr. T. Yatsushiro of McGill University. He says it is getting so warm in Canada's north country that some eskimos are buying them now.

NU Grad Gets Foreign Post

Tulsa, Okla. — Lowell E. Anderson, chief engineer of the Wyoming Division of Service Pipe Line Co., has been temporarily assigned to the Pan-American International Oil Co. for foreign service.

A Nebraska native, Anderson, formerly of Omaha, was graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1946 with a civil engineering degree.

Plans Paris Wedding

MISS JUDITH C. HUGHES

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Nelson Hughes of Paris, France, this morning are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Judith, to Keith Reagan Leech, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay L. Leech of Humboldt.

The bride-elect is a senior at the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, Phi Sigma Iota and Alliance Francaise. She formerly attended Mt. Holyoke College.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska where he is a member of Delta Sigma Phi and Psi Chi, Mr. Leech is a graduate student in clinical psychology at the university.

The wedding will take place later this summer in Paris at the American Embassy where the bride's father is U.S. consul-general. Miss Hughes is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Cooper of Humboldt.

We Hear That

Returning this week was Mrs. E. W. Skelton, 2710 Washington, who spent the last two months on the west coast visiting her sons-in-law and daughters and their families, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Edward B. Campbell and Patricia of Santa Clara, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Max R. Graham, Robert, Richard and Mary of San Jose, Calif. On June 12, Mrs. Skelton attended the graduation exercises at San Jose State College from which her grandson, Robert, received a BA Degree.

Dear Abby . . .

Now's The Time, Ma'am!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me, if you can (or maybe someone else can if you dare to print this) what is "God's will"? My husband and I have been married for sixteen years and have had nothing but trouble. Our son was taken to Juvenile Court when he was 14 because he never had a father's training or guidance.

My husband says, "It's God's will." We are about to lose our land because my husband doesn't want to work. He never watched his money when times were good. He says, "It's God's will." Frankly, I am confused although I have been to Church every Sunday since I was five. CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: "God's will" is that which is beyond the power of man to control. It's all right to get down on your knees and pray for something, but there is a time when man must get off his knees and work for it.

DEAR ABBY: I am a housewife and the mother of four children. My problem is a friend who calls me 4 and 5 times a day and holds the conversation for 15 and 20 minutes at a time. I want to keep her friendship but I can't stay on the phone that long. I have used the following excuses and wonder if you can add any? 1. Baby into something. 2. Water running. 3. Taking a bath. 4 Expecting an important call. 5. Have company. 6. Something on stove. 7. Doorbell ringing. Thanks, Abby, for any suggestions. BUSY HOUSEWIFE

DEAR BUSY: Honesty is the best policy—and by far the most effective. Tell her you are sorry but you have work to do and cannot visit on the phone.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: We have been married for three years and are very happy. Our problem is that my husband's mother and father will not talk to me or even look at our two adorable children. They are holding against me a mistake we made before we were married. I think that after three years they should forget the past, don't you? I have no parents and it would be so nice for my children to have grandparents.

ONE MISTAKE

DEAR ONE: Your husband's parents are being very foolish. Of course they should forget the past. Give them every opportunity to be with you and if they refuse—believe me, they are the losers.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I am helping my niece with her wedding plans and we disagree on one thing.

She says the kiss belongs in the ceremony and has religious significance. I say it would be more dignified to leave it out. What do you think?

DIGNIFIED

DEAR DIGNIFIED: Ask your clergyman. Religious ceremonies differ. A wedding kiss is always in good taste. If your niece wants it, it's HER wedding.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I am writing to a boy in the service who I have never seen. Just snapshots. He is a buddy of my brother's. He has been putting "S. W. A. B. K." and also "L. O. L." on the back of his letters. Don't you think he is getting too serious?

LENA

DEAR LENA: "S. W. A. B. K." is not exactly grounds for breach of promise but what does "L. O. L." mean?

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MISTAKEN". Nature in her infinite wisdom designed us so that we cannot kick ourselves, but I am sure your sister-in-law would be glad to accomodate you. Apologize and forget it.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, enclose a self-addressed envelope.

Saddle Club House Rejuvenated

Perhaps the Saddle Club members didn't read what the weatherman had to say—or it could be they just ignored the promise of extremely warm weather. It would appear, however, that the members believe in putting first things first, and completing the paint job on the Saddle Club House was not only a first—but a must. The club is planning one of their usual summer horse shows for Sunday, and wanted everything spic and span for the occasion.

The paint job was completed Tuesday evening when the club members and their paint brushes rallied to the cause.

New Neighbors Make News In Suburbia

COUNTRY CLUB MANOR

Returning home last week after a week's visit in Imperial were Mrs. Gordon A. Luikart, Jr., and her two children, Gus and Cathy. The Luikart threesome were the guests of former Country Club Terrace residents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes.

Mr. Luikart motored to Imperial to accompany his family home.

COUNTRY CLUB TERRACE

Monday, June 29, was moving day for Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Seacrest as that was the day that they settled in their new home at 2579 Woods Blvd.

The Seacrest couple formerly made their home at 2316 B.

Also recent newcomers in Country Club Terrace are Mrs. Clyde Dunn and her two sons, James and Robert, who are residing at 4042 Dunn.

The Dunn family have been making their home in Cedar Rapids, Ia., for the last several years.

Learned that Mr. and Mrs. Merle O. Brestel and their children are back in the suburb after a two-week holiday spent in Chappell with family members.

During their vacation, Bethy Brestel celebrated her second birthday on Wednesday, July 1.

INDIAN VILLAGE

A warm welcome this morning to Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne R. Triplett who moved into their Indian Village home early in June. The Tripletts, who made their former home in McCook, have as their new address 1228 Pawnee.

Mr. Triplett is a graduate student at the University of Nebraska where he is working on his Masters degree in school administration.

The youngest member of the Triplett family is Mr. and Mrs. Triplett's nine and a half month-old daughter, Sue.

And new residents at 1201 Pawnee are Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Harris and their son, Jeffrey, who is six months old. The Harris family moved into the suburb the middle of June.

The dance will begin at 8:30 o'clock at the Antelope Park pavilion.

Last Saturday evening, the Fourth of July square dance was attended by 175 dancers including couples from Independence, Mo., Marysville, Kan., Hastings, Syracuse, Grand Island, Omaha, Auburn, Crab Orchard, Geneva and Seward.

A Nebraskan Begins Travels In Japan

EDITOR'S NOTE—Mrs. William H. Hasebroock of West Point describes her first days in Tokyo, Japan, in another in the series of letters to The Star during her tour of the Far East.

Imperial Hotel, Tokyo, Japan—

Our flight, the last of three planes, was greeted by a group of Japanese clubwomen affiliated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Our entire group is sadly chagrined to learn how much English is known, spoken and used here — and not a one of us can speak a halting bit of their language.

Our first afternoon we were entertained at the Tokyo YMCA at a "high tea" by the Woman's Roundtable Club and the Association of University Women in Tokyo. It was a colorful gathering. Many members are wives of military personnel, business representatives of other countries, as well as Japanese citizens. Certainly these social gatherings are indicative of the melting pot which this city is becoming, but also are evidence of the cross section of united action of women in their combined civic service.

The Japanese women in their bright kimonas with gorgeous sashes freely intermingled with other Japanese women comfortably attired in western dress. In fact, the traditional Japanese attire is far less noticeable than I had expected. During the 30-minute drive from the airport to the Imperial Hotel, I saw only ten women and two men dressed in kimonos and clog slippers. However, the wife of a Navy commander told me the custom is very prevalent in outlying Japan — an area we will visit soon.

The Japanese courtesy is strikingly present with their every act. Four beautiful Japanese stewardesses devotedly and consistently served us on the sixteen hour trip. The casual, free association we enjoy with our American girls was not apparent. The century-old training of apparent subservience of the oriental women is a characteristic I find difficult to appreciate.

The young matron in a lovely blue suit, mink stole, flowered hat and white gloves, serving as mistress of ceremonies at the tea program, bowed low in that graceful manner they have to thank us for coming, for the applause, and for any expression of appreciation.

The showers on our arrival seemed to clear the sky for a bright morning to enjoy more adequately this unique country of Japan. Our first stop today was with U.S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur, II, nephew of the general. From his frank exposition of present problems in this area, we came to feel he is establishing his own niche in the hall of fame.

In land area, Japan is a bit smaller than the state of California with a population of 92 million, or a little less than one-half that of the U.S. Only 16 per cent of her land is arable. This situation creates terrific demands on the agriculture of the islands, which Japan cannot develop adequately to feed her teeming millions. The very life of this country depends on its trade.

Tokyo, one of the largest cities of the world, has many contrasting facets. There is the native, ancient art right along side of modern architecture. Perhaps it is best portrayed by the Imperial Palace, surrounded by a moat and wall, within walking distance of the old and new Imperial Hotels.

Last evening, a few of us were entertained at dinner and the theater. My hostess was a young club officer of the hostess group who wore the traditional Japanese kimona and obi. She admitted that her mother, who wore the kimono always, had to help her dress.

Today, we saw women performing menial tasks never witnessed in our country. They were sweeping the streets with bamboo brushes and polishing shoes at street stands.

Patio Party Honors Visitors

When Mr. and Mrs. Kep Harding entertained at a patio party at their home on Monday evening, the affair was a courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Dunn of St. Louis, formerly of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn (she is the former Elizabeth Hochreiter) are guests at the home of Mrs. Dunn's mother, Mrs. Otto Hochreiter.

Houseguest

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Markell is Mr. Markell's sister, Miss Gail Markell of Miami Beach, Fla. Miss Markell will spend several weeks as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law.

Aksarben Club

Mrs. Walter Starck served as toastmistress on Tuesday, when the Aksarben Toastmistress Club met at the Hotel Cornhusker for luncheon.

During the afternoon, a skit, "The New Member", was presented, and Mrs. Starck, Mrs. Rudelle Webb and Mrs. Bruce Mills participated in a panel discussion, "Toastmistress Meets the Nation".

Housing Bill Is Vetoed By Ike

He Brands It Inflationary; Johnson Denounces Veto As Ill-Advised

Washington (UPI)—President Eisenhower Tuesday vetoed the Democratic-sponsored housing bill, branding it so costly and defective that "it would do far more damage than good."

He sent the bill back to Congress along with a biting, 1,000-word message attacking the legislation as "inflationary" and demanding approval of the "sound" housing program he recommended last January.

Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson immediately denounced the veto as "ill-advised" and the veto message as a "political, partisan" document.

Johnson did not say directly whether an attempt would be made to override the veto, but hinted that the Senate might have to give in and pass a bill more in line with Eisenhower's wishes.

Little Chance To Override

There appeared to be little chance Congress would override the veto. The bill passed the Senate 56 to 31 and the House 241 to 177. But both these margins fell short of the two-thirds majorities necessary to overturn a veto, and the President usually picks up supporters when the veto comes to a test.

Johnson said he would follow the recommendations of Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala), chairman of the Senate's Housing subcommittee and the main sponsor of the bill. He said he also would be guided by "whether some of the few Republicans in favor of a housing bill are willing to stand up and vote to override the veto."

The Senate, interrupting debate on the foreign aid bill, discussed the President's action for two and one-half hours. Sens. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa) and Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) demanded a showdown on the veto, Eisenhower's 4th of the year.

An industry spokesman — President Carl T. Mitnick of the National Association of Home Builders—called Eisenhower's veto "a severe and unwarranted blow to the housing needs of the American people."

Police Have Nothing New On Burglary

There were no new developments as police continued their investigation into the $4,000 daylight burglary at the home of a Lincoln gun and coin collector.

Det. Lt. Robert Butcher said one possible lead is still being followed.

The burglary occurred Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis L. Murphy, 322 So. 27th. Taken were 12 guns, a number of valuable coin collections, 5 diamond rings, 3 watches and a set of women's luggage.

According to Mrs. Murphy, the guns constituted the greater value of the loot. All of the coins, she said, are spendable.

Police said that the burglars gained entry by kicking in a locked basement door on the east side of the house. Mrs. Murphy said she returned home from work at 3:30 p.m. to find the house completely ransacked. The burglary occurred between 6:45 a.m. and Mrs. Murphy's return, police said.

BOYLE HAS FAITH IN BOTH CONGRESS, NATL. CHAIRMAN

"I want to emphasize my faith in the Senate, the House and Paul Butler," said Democratic National Committeeman Bernard Boyle of Omaha Tuesday in reference to criticism leveled at Butler after the Democratic national chairman had blasted Democratic leadership in Congress.

"I do not know the exact nature of the controversy between Paul Butler and Congress," Boyle told the Star, "but I think he is acting in the best interests of the party."

Boyle said political parties are bound to have factions and the trick is to bring them together without losing the issue.

No Accomplishment

"Apparently Butler's position is not accomplishing that purpose at this date," he added.

A political leader is better off if he says exactly what he thinks, Boyle said. "If he tries to please everybody to avoid a fight, he pleases no one."

"A little courage never hurts a politician," Boyle said.

"It is very evident that both Congress and Butler have courage," he added.

Oust Rayburn

In answer to a question concerning an earlier report that Rep. William Jennings Bryan Dorn (D-SC) had said that Butler's Sunday blast on television at Democratic Congressional leadership "lent truth to reports that Butler was masterminding a plan to oust Sam Rayburn as permanent chairman of the 1960 presidential convention and House Democratic leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts as chairman of the convention platform committee," Boyle said:

"He (Butler) might as well try to fight Ingemar Johansson."

Cindy Is Brewing East Of Carolinas

Miami, Fla. (AP) — Tropical storm Cindy was born Tuesolinas. Late Tuesday night it picked up a little strength and an apparently slow northward drift.

Forecasters at the U.S. Weather Bureau at Miami said the season's 3rd tropical storm probably would attain hurricane force (75 miles an hour or more) during Wednesday.

The weather bureau ordered a hurricane watch and cautioned people in an area between Cape Hatteras, N.C., to Charleston, S.C., to be ready to act in event a hurricane warning is issued.

Gordon Dunn, chief forecaster at Miami, said aircraft and ground radar estimated Cindy at 11 p.m. (EST) was centered at latitude 32.5 north, longitude 76.9 west, or 180 miles from Charleston.

DELAPLANE'S POSTCARD

As probably everybody knows, this is National Hot Dog Month.

The way everybody knows it is because the hot dog people have a raft of press agents. The hot dog press agents elect Hot Dog Queens. They send slathers of handouts to the newspapers. It is a stirring month.

Well, harking back to yesteryear as we say: The greatest of hot dog press agents was Mr. Irving Hoffman, the Beau Brummell of Broadway.

Mr. Hoffman sang the praises of that great frankfurter, the Coney Island red hot.

His professional stationery bore the exciting inscription: "When a man bites a dog, that's news."

When Queen Elizabeth's papa was King, he visited the U.S. And Mr. Hoffman engineered a thing where President Roosevelt served the King a hot dog.

My word! This went around the world in a way you could hardly believe.

"KING EATS HOT DOG WITH FDR."

That was one headline I remember. Nearly all the journals carried this gastronomic news on Page One. It proved the King was a regular person—only without the advantages of having hot dogs at Buckingham Palace.

But when you gave him a hot dog, he was just like everybody else.

Mr. Roosevelt not only gave the King a hot dog. He made an announcement to the press that "it was a genuine Coney Island red hot."

This assured him the New York vote.

Irving Hoffman, I think, went to Heaven.

The word of the King and the hot dog went into all the faraway places. (For editors are a savvy bunch. They realize when a King bites a dog, it is good for circulation.)

Down in Trinidad, a Calypso singer named Lord Invader immediately wrote a calypso about.

"The King take hot dog in his hahnd,
"And he face hot dog, mahn to mahn."

☆ ☆ ☆

The hot dog publicity this year has a Queen I never heard of. (One year we had Jayne Mansfield.)

The hot dog publicity carries the word "wholesome" quite a few times.

Actually, the hot dog—I guess we lose a few friends here—actually the hot dog is largely water. (Though I am not saying water is NOT wholesome.)

Hot dogs have been tested at 10 to 17 per cent protein; 17 to 35 per cent fat; and 45 to 63 per cent water.

The best American hot dogs were served at the Brussels World Fair.

But they were made specially for showing the foreigners what a good thing we had—they never got on the American market.

When I was a boy, hot dogs were generally called "red hots." They were served on a bun with mustard and chopped pickle. I suspect they were largely water, too. But they tasted wonderful.

At least they tasted better than they seem to today. I have had some mighty poor hot dogs in the ball parks. Although, to be honest, I think the trouble was in those buns.

Even mustard does not do much for a cold, day-old bun.

Anyway, this is no time to carp. This is Hot Dog Month and the mimeographed hot dog news is hot on the desk.

A good deal of it is printed, too. Not for literally excellence. I think most of us have a sneaking suspicion that the hot dog is somehow tied up with the flag and God Bless America. And baseball could not be played without it.

Pioneer Balloonist Killed During Test

St. Paul, Minn. (AP) —A high-altitude balloonist who pioneered in the space age has become one of its first casualties.

M. Lee Lewis, 46, who once shared the manned balloon altitude record, was killed standing in an open-basket gondola just 3 feet above ground.

He was hit by a 15-pound steel pulley that fell 65 feet while Lewis was testing the gondola's stability.

MEMBERS OF 16 LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES NAMED

The Legislative Council Executive committee Tuesday announced membership of 16 committees which will conduct legislative council studies from now until the 1961 session.

The Legislative Council is the research branch of the Legislature and is made up of the 43 state senators.

The studies are the result of resolutions passed by the 1959 Legislature. Results of the studies usually come in the form of bills at the following session.

Sen. John Munnelly, Omaha, was named chairman of the committee which will continue to study labor problems in Nebraska.

Labor was a hot issue at the 1959 session and resulted in a law banning secondary boycotts and the killing of a labor relations bill.

Sen. Ray Simmons, Fremont, who headed the secondary boycott committee during the last interim, and Sen. Jack Romans, Ord, a strong opponent oo the teamsters union, were not placed on the committee.

Sen. Hans Jensen, Aurora, will head a committee on taxation designed primarily to study a new method of taxing livestock and to study tax exemptions.

Sen. Terry Carpenter, Scottsbluff, who headed an aggressive one-man tax study probe prior to the 1959 session was named a member of the committee.

Other committee chairmen are:

Election Laws: Sens. Lautenschlager; George Fulton, Beatrice; Frank Nelson, O'Neill; John Munnelly, Omaha; Sam Klaver, Omaha; Terry Carpenter, Scottsbluff; David Tews, Norfolk.

Traffic Safety: Sens. Vosoba; Peter Claussen, Leigh; Klaver; Arthur Swanson, Holdrege; Lewis Webb, Ogallala; Hal Bridenbaugh, Dakota City; Lautenschlager.

90% Wheat Ready For Harvesting

Oat Fields Also Ripening Swiftly

Wet field conditions delayed wheat harvesting operations in many areas of the state in recent days, government observers said Tuesday.

The harvest was expected to move ahead rapidly throughout the southern half of the state this week, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics said.

As of Saturday, about 90% of the crop was in the ripening stage and about half was mature enough for harvest.

About 10% of the crop was harvested by last weekend. In a few south central areas the harvest was more than half completed.

Reports from around the state indicate that 65% of the oats had reached the ripening stage and 20% was mature. Only about 5% of the oat acreage was cut, but the barley harvest was somewhat more advanced.

Recovery from slow root development was noted in the northeast where the crops were making good to excellent progress.

Many farmers were "laying by" early corn but many were anxious to catch up on cultivating the late fields after last week's rain.

Rainfall over the state during the past week included:

	East
Grand Island	1.80	Norfolk	1.63
Lincoln	1.64	Omaha	1.47
	Central
Burwell	1.61	Valentine	.35
North Platte	1.16
	West
Chadron	.53	Scottsbluff	.36
Imperial	.16	Sidney	.32

Moisture by sections from April 1, the beginning of the growing season, as compared to the longtime average includes:

Northwest—7.14 inches (1959); 7.91 inches (average).
North Central—8.87; 9.12.
Northeast—13.79; 10.51.
Central—10.14; 8.85.
East Central—14.79; 10.86.
Southwest—8.32; 8.35.
South Central—11.11; 9.88.
Southeast—14.08; 11.90.

Combining By End Of Week Due At Sidney

By the Associated Press

With one eye on the skies, combine crews cut into an increasingly bigger area of Nebraska wheat fields this week.

The latest word was that the harvesting probably will begin in the Sidney area in wheat-rich Cheyenne County the end of the week.

Combines began moving into Sidney over the weekend.

Observers said if the weather remains dry, quality of wheat in the Sidney area should be better than last year.

What the weather can do to the wheat at harvest time was demonstrated in the Beatrice area when a storm late last week brought more than two inches of rain. Not only were combines halted but some wheat was beaten into the ground.

Combining has started in Dodge County in eastern Nebraska and in Custer County in the Central part of the state.

Early reports in Broken Bow were that quality may exceed earlier expectations.

The concensus in the Ogallala area is that growers in Keith and neighboring counties will harvest a crop of good quality wheat averaging 25 to 30 bushels an acre.

Roscoe, Grant and Big Springs early-bird cuttings gave some indications of what could be expected.

In Cozad Bellamy Grain Corp. completed a new 500,000 bushel horizontal grain elevator in time for the harvest.

Becker's Toss Treats Directors

By Al Beebe

In past Press-Radio games, manager Dick (Bucket Hips) Becker has claimed he has thought up new ways to win them. Becker came up with a new way to lose 'em Tuesday night at Sherman Field.

Usually a bench manager of the Press-Radio All-Stars, Becker got into action briefly, inserting himself on the mound with the bases loaded and the score tied 3-3 in the game with the Directors of the Lincoln Chiefs.

The manager unleashed one pitch, which skidded to the backstop, allowing the winning run to score in the Directors' 4-3 victory.

It was Becker's worst decision of the night. Earlier, he had been banished from the rhubarb-filled game by base umpire Ira Hutchinson. Hutch should have made the banishment stick, but the Lincoln manager evidently remembered his own position.

Directors' manager A. Q. Schimmel was pleased with the victory, but has little "strategy" he can claim. His best move was inserting Roger Bottorff, Chiefs GM, in as a relief pitcher.

Bottorff wild-pitched the 3rd run home for the Press-Radio-TV All-Stars, but then got out of the inning and struck out the side in the final frame. The ex-pro southpaw had too much stuff for the All-Stars.

The All-Stars were the victims of several rally-killing decisions by the umires, Hutchinson and his plate cohort, Ray Mueller of Burlington. In the first inning, a close decision at first going against the Stars, ended a spurt which had provided two runs on singles by Leo Scherer and Tom Novak and Del Black's double.

The All-Stars also had two men put out at third base in that inning. Third base coach Ron Gibson explained, "How was I to know they could throw?"

In the second inning, Bob Munger was caught at third when Mueller threw a second ball into play, which went into centerfield. Munger was tagged out by the ball actually in play.

That was also the inning in which Don (Fat Fox) Bryant, the martyr of the game, got his hit for the second year in a row, a perfect bunt single. Bryant, in a last-minute change of strategy, worked behind the plate, almost refused to play when he was inadvertently left out of the team photo.

Bryant was made a victim by Mueller in the third, when Wilbur Baack scored

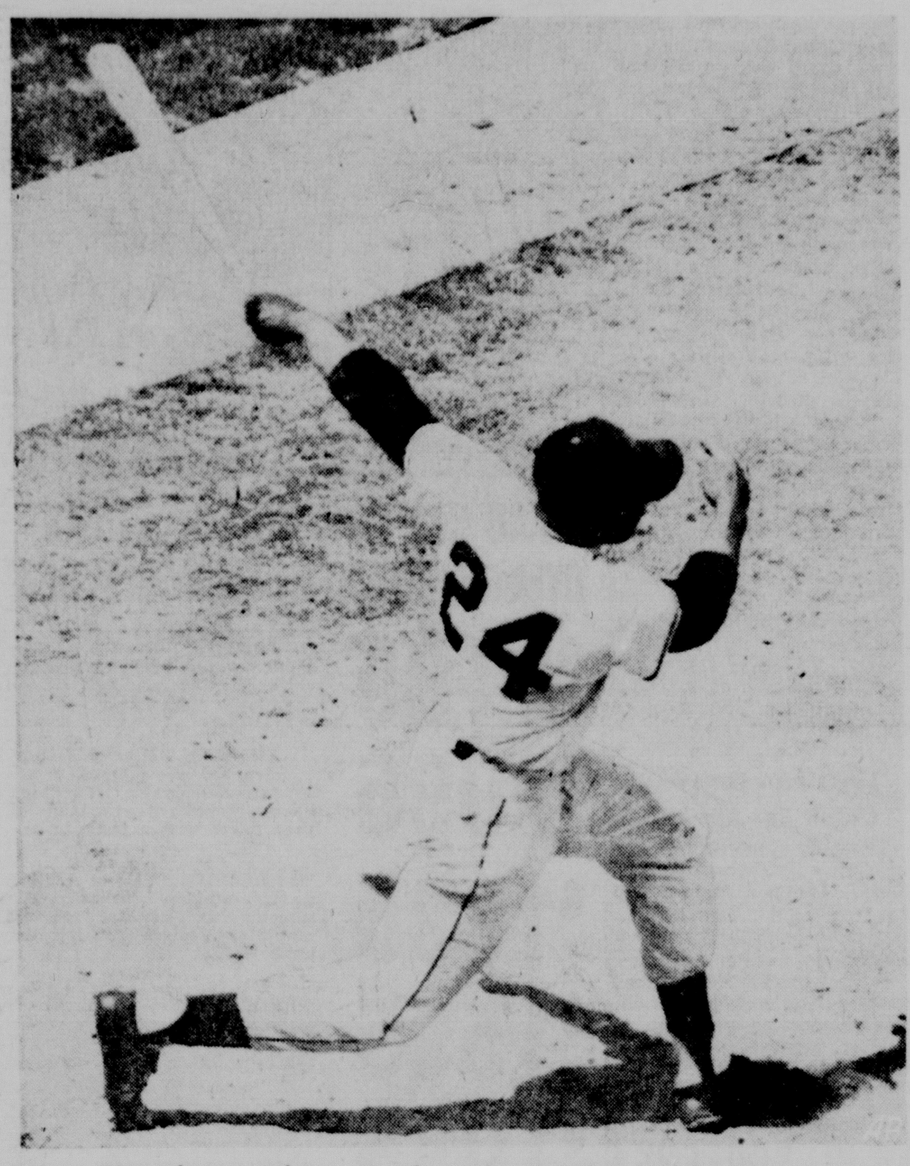
"One pitch" says All-Star manager Dick Becker as he takes the mound in relief. That's all he threw as he wild pitched the winning run home in a 4-3 Directors' victory.

Wasdell's 5-Hit Job Makes It 6 Straight



Mays bat swishes . . . and ensuing triple provides NL win.

HotHomeStand Ending Tonight

By Don Bryant

Lincoln's Chiefs made it 6 in a row Tuesday night, defeating the Burlington Bees, 6-3, before 723 fans at Sherman Field.

Bryant (Rube) Wasdell, the fellow who started the Chiefs' string last Friday, stopped the Bees on 5 hits. It was the 6th straight complete pitching victory by a Lincoln chucker.

The Chiefs now boast a 3-0 record in the second half of the Three-I league pennant chase, good enough to top the loop at this point.

Home Stand Final

Burlington and Lincoln will wind up the current home stand tonight at 8 p.m. Teunis (5-4) will be on the Shermantown mound for the Chiefs.

Burlington drew first blood Tuesday night, but the Chiefs fired back for a trio and were never headed as Wasdell kept the Bees in check.

After Horace Ingram's sacrifice fly plated the first Bee run in the top half of the first, the Chiefs quickly evened the score against Gary Tomlan.

Boot Is Costly

Don Bacon opened the home first with an infield hit and moved to second on a sacrifice. Jim Lynn was then hit with a pitch and Deacon Jones followed with a single to tie it at 1-1. Two more runs streaked home as Sammy Drake booted Don Gordon's bouncer and threw wild after picking up the ball.

The Chiefs made it 6-1 in the 4th when Wasdell beat out an infield single, Bacon walked, and Mike Hershberger and Lynn singled.

All that was left was staving off the Bees and Wasdell and the Chiefs fared well in this department.

Scott Smacks Homer

An error, a wild pitch and Tomlan's single plated a Burlington run in the 5th and Spencer Scott's solo homer in the 6th wound up the Bees'

Halimi Choice To Keep Title

. . . Bantam Bout Tonight

Los Angeles (AP) — Fellow countrymen of young Jose Becerra of Mexico swarmed into town here Tuesday to pull for their latest idol to win the world bantamweight championship.

But the titleholder, Alphonse Halimi of France, remained the general choice to retain the crown in the 15-round nationally televised fight tonight.

It goes on in Los Angeles' new 6-million dollar Memorial Sports Arena at 8 p.m., Central Standard Time. ABC will do the TV, with this area blacked out for a radius of some 300 miles. There will be no radio broadcast.

Odds Are 8-5

The latest word from the betting fraternity was 8-5 on Halimi, with some money going at 2-1.

In any event, this clash of the top two 118-pounders in the world shapes up as a fight well worth seeing.

Neither is the waltzing, clinching type and both can belt with either hand.

Matchmaker George Parnassus, who made the fight, indicated his previous estimate of a gate close to $150,000 might be bettered if tickets keep moving today as they have the last few days.

Second Defense

This will be Halimi's second defense of the title he won April 1, 1957, when he outpointed Mario D'Agata of Italy in 15 rounds in Paris.

The 27-year-old native of French Algeria made his first defense here at Wrigley Field when he closed strong to win a 15-round decision over another Mexican hero, Raul (Raton) Macias.

Since then the personable Alphonse has whipped 6 European foes in non-title matches, winning 3 of them by knockouts.

Halimi's overall record is 28 bouts, 27 wins, one loss, 15 knockouts.

Has KO Streak

Becerra, 23, from Guadalajara, has a sensational streak of 11 straight knockouts to his credit. The most impressive was in 10 rounds over D'Agata here last Feb. 5.

Whether his opponents stack up favorably with Halimi's victims may be debated. But thus far he has done everything asked of him.

Both fighters have been stopped. Halimi lost via cut eyes to Jimmy Carson in London in the 9th round June 4, 1957.

Holiday Causes Woe

A courageous Lincoln "Baseball Fan" has unlimbered his pen and fired both barrels at this corner.

Stand back, please!

"I would like to be among the first to congratulate you on your very outstanding write up of the Chiefs-Topeka game which appeared in Sunday's paper . . . You deserve a Congressional Medal of Honor — service above and beyond the call of duty (to smother what little interest and enthusiasm Lincoln might still have.)

"Here was a chance to give an interesting write up of a colorful game and successful evening at Sherman Field. But no—instead we are given a measly 8 lines (how come it rated the first page?) without even a mention of the winning pitcher. There was a time when we used to have write ups with pictures of key players, but I guess that went out with the departure of "Shep."

Perhaps there's no connection, but Lincoln fans started disappearing with the departure of Larry Shepard. "Baseball Fan" deserves to know—as do all of the curious—why the Chiefs didn't get very much ink in some Sunday papers. But the inference that the local press is falling down on the job is ridiculous. In fact, the scribes are much more loyal than the fans.

If there's a soul in Lincoln that doesn't know that the Chiefs are based at Sherman Field it's because he can't read or hear. The Chiefs are getting as much or more coverage as ever — but fewer people are seeing them play. When and if the Chiefs are forced to call it quits—a possibility that is only an eye-wink away unless the turnstiles start clicking—it will be because the fans didn't want baseball and refused to patronize Sherman Field, not because the press gave the club the cold shoulder.

As for Saturday night, it was one of the 6 nights a year that the presses run early because of a holiday. But the game was staffed, scored and duly reported. Unfortunately, all of the readers—including myself—didn't get all the details, only the bulletin. Others got the whole story after the presses were stopped in the middle of printing in order to get the Chiefs' story to as many people as possible.

So "Baseball Fan," we're sorry, but we did the best we could. And if baseball disappears from the Lincoln scene, don't blame the press. Cast that evil eye at your friends—who didn't go to Sherman Field.

Willie's Triple Chills AL, 5-4

Pittsburgh (AP)—Willie Mays' 438-foot triple to the ivy-covered right-center field wall in the 8th inning gave the favored National League a 5-4 victory over the American League here Tuesday in the 26th all-star game.

Roy Face, Pittsburgh's unbeaten relief ace who hasn't lost since May 30, 1958, was knocked out of the box in the top half of the 8th by Gus Triandos' two-out double that pushed the Americans ahead briefly 4-3. But Johnny Antonelli of San Francisco saved Face and grabbed the victory by throwing only 6 pitches.

A lead-off pinch single by Ken Boyer of St. Louis, a sacrifice by Pittsburgh's Dick Groat and a run-scoring single by Milwaukee's Hank Aaron preceded the smash by Mays of the San Francisco Giants. The two runs came off veteran Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees, who had started the 8th.

Mays ...

Quiet, Orderly Affair

A quiet, orderly affair in the first 6 innings while Vice President Richard Nixon and a capacity crowd basked in the warm sunshine, this game erupted into a frenzied battle of pinch hitters and pinch runnders down the stretch.

Casey Stengel, the presiding genius of the New York Yankees, shuffled his talent so generously that 6 different men appeared in the 7th position in the batting order, originally inhabited by Washinton's Harmon Killebrew. On of them, Pete Runnels of Boston, was taker out for another pinch hitter, Roy Sievers of Washington, before he ever got to the plate.

But in the end it was Mays' long drive off Ford that wrapped up the National victory, closing the American League's series lead to 15-11.

Willie's smash sailed over the head of Detroit's Harvey Kuenn in right center. The ball bounced against the scenic wall near the 438-foot mark while Aaron dashed home with the winning run. The San Francisco center fielder reached 3rd — and stayed there.

A paid attendance of 35,277 — full capacity — was announced, although only 34,763 showed up at Forbes Field on a perfect afternoon for baseball. They watched Los Angeles' Don Drysdale throw 3 perfect innings at the Americans and saw Lew Burdette of Milwaukee give up only one run — a homer by Al Kaline of Detroit in the 4th — during his 3-inning stint.

Wynn Settles Down

After Chicago's Early Wynn, the American Starter, yielded a first-inning homer to Milwaukee's Ed Mathews, he settled down and allowed no more scoring during his 3-inning workout. Ryne Duren, the Yanks' fireballing relief man, whirled through 3 shutout innings, fanning 4 and leaving with the score tied at 1-1 after 6 innings.

Drysdale's pitching was a thing of beauty. He went to 3 balls on only one batter.

Writers Vote Drysdale Best

Pittsburgh (AP) — Sports writers covering the All-Star baseball game voted pitcher Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers the outstanding player of the game.

Drysdale started the game for the National League and retired the American Leaguers in 1-2-3 order during the 3 innings that he pitched. He struck out 4 and gave up no walks.

No Excuses Made By Skipper Casey

Pittsburgh (AP) — Casey Stengel, manager of the American League All-Stars, made no excuses for his team's 5-4 loss to the National League at Forbes Field here Tuesday.

Stengel

"It was a good game," grunted the old professor, who was chewing on a piece of bologna.

There's nothing to regret. I was satisfied with the team."

"They (the Nationals) played worse then we did. But they won and that's what counts," shrugged Casey.

"But there's one thing," he added. "You can tell the groundskeepers here the Pirates should lead the league in hitting. That infield is really hard."

What was the turning point in the game?

"You know damn well what it was," shot back Stengel.

"If Willie Mays doesn't hit that triple, well there's a lot of things I could have done."

Durocher Denies Rumors He'll Manage White Sox

Pittsburgh (AP) — Leo Durocher said here Tuesday he has received no definite offer to manage a major league club, but Lippy admitted he had discussed such a possibility with the Chicago White Sox.

The former Brooklyn and New York Giant manager, now an executive with NBC, said rumors of his getting a definite offer to manage stemmed from his friendship with Dave Marx, a New York toy manufacturer.

Everybody knows that Dave and I have been very close friends for 20 years," he said, "and everybody knows that he owns a considerable amount of stock in the White Sox. That's where the rumors started."

Leo went on:

"Sure, whenever I'd visit New York, I'd discuss the White Sox ball club with Dave, and I'd be lying if I said that the possibility of my managing the club was never discussed. But never did Dave or anybody else connected with the Chicago club ever give me a concrete offer."

Would he accept the job as White Sox manager if it were offered to him?

"That depends on a lot of things," he said. "Salary would be of no consideration. Baseball could not pay me as much as I'm earning now with NBC ($100,000 a year). The only way I would consider managing the White Sox or any other club, provided I ever received an offer, would be it I were given stock in the club.

"It would have to be a long term contract, and, if there came a time when the club and I couldn't see eye to eye any longer, I'd just quit and get rid of my stock in a capital gains deal."

Durocher, here for the All-Star game in the capacity of a television announcer, admitted his option on his contract comes up for renewal in 3 days. He denied that he was using the managerial offer angle as a wedge.

"My contract does not expire until October," he said, "but the option to renew expires July 10. You can safely say that the option will be renewed."

Hank Greenberg, a part owner of the White Sox, said he knew nothing of any discussions with Durocher and added that as far as he knew, Bill Veeck, the club president, was perfectly satisfied with Al Lopez, the current manager.

Senior Circuit Grabs 5-4 Win

... In All-Star Contest

The handsome 22-year-old righthander struck out 4 while retiring his 9 men in succession.

Kaline, who hadn't played in a week after undergoing corrective surgery for a fractured cheekbone, had expected to play only 3 innings, but he stayed around long enough to smash a 4th inning 3-2 pitch through the branches of a tree, just outside the wall in left field about 390 feet away.

The Nationals broke the tie by ripping into Jim Bunning of Detroit for two runs in the 7th. After Ernie Banks of Chicago collected his second double—a blast off the screen around a light tower near the scoreboard, in left—Bunning retired the next two batters. Then Del Crandall of Milwaukee bounced a pitch into center, scoring Banks. Bill Mazeroski of Pittsburgh singled to left scoring Crandall, but the Pirate second baseman was out trying to stretch his hit into a double.

3,684 Apply For Permits To Bag Deer

A reported 3,684 applications have been made to the State Game Commission for permits during the coming rifle deer season.

The total represents about 1/3 of the number that will be issued for the Nov. 7-11 season.

Lloyd P. Vance, the Game Commission's Chief of Game, said the areas filling up at the fastest rate are the Pine Ridge and East Central, each with about half of their authorized permits taken.

No permits have been mailed yet, pending receipt of printed copies of a deer bulletin which will be mailed to each permittee.

Time is running out for antelope enthusiasts, Vance said. One hundred and 72 applications have been received for the authorized 250 permits.

The antelope season will be from Sept. 12 to 14.

National
Bunning went to the mound for the Americans. Malzone replaced Killebrew at third. Banks doubled high off the screen at the foot of the light tower in left field. (Malzone will bat 9th and Bunning 7th.) Cepeda popped to Aparicio behind the mound. Moon looked at a 3rd strike. Crandall singled over second, scoring Banks to put the Nationals ahead 2-1, and went to second on Kuenn's throw to the plate. Mazeroski lined a single to the left field corner, scoring Crandall but was out trying for second on a fine throw from Minoso to Fox.
Two runs, Three hits.

EIGHTH INNING
American
Malzone popped to Mazeroski behind second. Minoso fouled to Crandall near the third base dugout. Fox lined a single over second base. Don Elston, Chicago right hander began warming up for the Nationals and Daley got up again for the Americans. Kuenn walked on a full count. Power singled to center, scoring Fox. Kuenn stopping at second. Williams batted for Colavito. Williams looked at three called balls and a strike and took a fourth ball to fill the bases. Gil McDougald ran for Williams. Johnny Antonelli, San Francisco left hander started warming up for the Nationals. Triandos doubled inside the third base line, scoring Kuenn and Power and sending McDougald to third. This put the Americans in front 4-3. Runnels batted for Bunning. Ford, New York left hander, joined Daley in the American bullpen. Antonelli replaced Face on the mound. Sievers batted for Runnels. Mantle ran for Triandos.
Sievers walked, filling the bases the second time in the inning. Lollar batted for Aparicio, and grounded to Mathews who stepped on third, forcing Mantle.
Three runs, three hits, three left.
National
Ford and Lollar formed the new battery for the American. McDougald went to shortstop and Mantle went to right field. Boyer batted for Antonelli and singled past McDougald into left center, scoring Boyer with the tying run. Mays walloped a tremendous triple over Kuenn's head to the 438-foot sign in right center, scoring Aaron to put the Nationals ahead 5-4. Daley replaced Ford on the mound. Banks struck out swinging. Cepeda fouled to Power who reached into first base field boxes to make the catch.
Two runs, three hits, one left.
NINTH INNING
American
Elston became the 5th pitcher for the Nationals. Boyer went to third.
Milwaukee left-hander Warren Spahn and Philadelphia right-hander Gene Conley began throwing in the National bullpen. Pierce started to throw for the American.
Malzone popped to Banks. Minoso struck out. Fox hit a long foul into the right field stands barely missing a home run by several feet. He lined the next pitch over short for a single. Fox advanced to second on a wild pitch. Kuenn fouled to Boyer between third and the plate.

Ex-Wesleyan Coach Pick At Washington

Seattle (AP) — The University of Washington Tuesday hired John Grayson, 43, of Idaho State College, as new head basketball coach to replace Tippy Dye.

The job has been vacant since Dye resigned June 8 to become athletic director of the University of Wichita.

Grayson has been basketball coach of the Pocatello, Idaho, school in the Rocky Mountain Conference for 3 years. His teams have gone each year to the NCAA far west regional playoffs.

George Briggs, Washington athletic director, announced Grayson's selection. Salary terms were not disclosed.

Grayson coached at Nebraska Wesleyan during the 1951-52 and '52-53 seasons, compiling a 40-16 record. His '52-53 team, which included 7-footer Don Boldebuck, posted a 25-3 mark and went to the NAIA national tournament.

After his NWU tenure, he spent 3 seasons as assistant coach at the University of Oklahoma.

Lincolnite Gets Credit For Mark

The state game commission has officially recognized a 9-pound, 14-ounce large-mouth bass caught June 16 near Louisville by Phil Cornish of Lincoln as a state record.

It was the 5th record fish taken during a 6-week period. The former bass record, 9-pounds 3-ounces, was taken by Wentworth Clarke of Omaha in 1943.

his second run of the game for the Directors on a wild pitch. Bryant's throw to the plate trying to get Baack hit batsman Harold Hoppe. Mueller awarded him first base for being hit by the catcher.

Bob (The Real) McCoy started for the All-Stars, seeking his 4th victory. He tired in the 4th, however, and gave up a walk to Bernie Yates before striking out Bob Simon.

Carl Olson, however, boomed a long foul ball to left and then popped one in front of the left fielder for a single. Bottorff then drew an intentional walk to load the bases.

Becker brought in Bob Martel from shortstop in relief of McCoy, and he walked in the tying run by issuing a pass to Howard Linch. Becker went to the mound to pitch to Baack, and quickly ended the game, which had moved past the time limit.

Catfish, Bullhead, Perch Producing Best

High Water Slows State's Fishing

Whiskered catfish, bullhead, and yellow perch have produced the state's best fishing in recent days, reports the Game Commission in its weekly roundup.

Rains and high waters in many parts of the state reduced fishing pressure. Some of the rivers in the southeastern part of the state are at flood stage.

Top catfish producer in recent days include the Republican River (Webster), Milburn Dam (Blaine), and Spencer Dam (Holt). Chicken liver, worms, and minnows have been the best bait for "old whiskers." Conservation Officer William Ahern, North Loup, reports one angler took a 12-pound cat from Milburn Dam, one of the hot spots last summer.

Best angling in the reservoir area has been for crappie and white bass. Officer Lee Bowers, Benkelman, reports fewer fishermen out but that crappie are still hitting at Enders Lake (Chase). At Johnson (Gosper) and Gallagher (Dawson), Officer Burman Guyer, Lexington, describes white bass angling as excellent. The bass, he continues, are in the shallow water near the edges of the lakes.

Some trout enthusiasts were having a heyday at McConaughy Reservoir (Keith), with most action near the spillway.

Perch fishing excelled in the panhandle area, with Lake Minatare (Scotts Bluff), and Box Butte Reservoir (Dawes) the best bets.

Walgren Lake (Sheridan) furnished plenty of bullhead fishing.

In the southeastern part of the state, Officer Roy Owen, Crete, described fishing in Fillmore, Saline, Thayer, and Jefferson counties as fair. Most rivers are at flood stage. Bluegill and catfish have been furnishing most of the action.

Famous for its Flavor since 1859

Goetz COUNTRY CLUB Pilsener Beer

Known even in the days of the Oregon Trail for its robust character and hearty flavor, Country Club is one of the traditions of the Old West. There's the full honest feel of the west in its taste, the bigness of the west in its gift of cool refreshment. Why don't you try it?

It was in the era of the covered wagon and the Oregon Trail that Michael Karl Goetz built his brewery at the then frontier town of St. Joseph, Missouri. This famous old brewery has been in continuous production ever since. And it is still owned and operated by the family of the founder.

Griffith Park Hermit Judged Mentally Ill

Sent To Veterans Hospital

Los Angeles (AP)—The hermit of Griffith Park was judged mentally ill Tuesday. He was sent to Speulveda Veterans Hospital for treatment after doctors testified he "is dangerous to himself and others."

Dennis Farrell, 32, sat with his face in his hands through most of his sanity hearing as doctors reported their findings.

Parents Attend

The parents of the World War II combat veteran, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Farrell of North Platte, Neb., were in the courtroom. At one point their son turned to them and said:

"I've killed all these people. They're all dead."

Farrell retreated from civilization 6 years ago to roam the 4,200 acre Griffith Park, living off the land on berries, fruits and picnic scraps.

H. M. Berliner and Thomas L. Gore, the two physicians who examined him at General Hospital, told Judge Lloyd S. Nix that Farrell's "judgment is grossly impaired."

They said he insisted that one of the women nurses was his father. She had to leave the room before he would quiet down.

Farrell came out of Griffith Park June 29, looking for a policeman who had befriended him last April. He saw his parents for the first time in 6 years on July 1.

As the hearing concluded, the elder Farrell told the court: "I think our boy should be taken care of and treated. There's something wrong."

Identical Valley Twins Shared Similar Interests Over Years

Charleston, S.C. (AP)— Sheila and Sandra Marsh, dark-eyed identical twins, always shared the same interests.

The attractive girls usually went around with the same crowd back home at Valley, Neb. The 22-year-old twins were graduated together from Colorado Women's College at Denver and from the University of Iowa, both with botany degrees.

Last December they joined the Women's Air Force and were commissioned second lieutenants, after training at Lackland AFB, Tex. Their first duty assignment was Air Force Base.

Shared House

They shared an off-base house in North Charleston. A few months ago Sandra met and fell in love with John Housand, 24, a civilian who had served 7 years in the Air Force. They became engaged.

Last Thursday, Housand and his fiance's sister, Sheila, decided they were in love, although they had never dated each other.

The couple returned to the North Charleston house on their wedding night and told Sandra of their marriage. They said Sandra became "a little hysterical" but later calmed down and appeared reconciled.

The 3 spent Friday and Saturday night in the house and were planning to go out together Sunday night. Sandra took a few sleeping pills to rest Sunday.

The newlyweds heard a noise in Sandra's bedroom and rushed to investigate. Sandra had shot herself in the stomach with a .32 caliber pistol.

DOES MORE THAN JUST "SHRINK" PILE TISSUES!.
No Surgery Needed to Stop Pain of Swollen Pile Tissues While They Heal!
Remarkable compound puts painful rectal nerves to sleep in minutes . . . while it reduces swelling and promotes natural healing!

Pain, itching of swollen piles are torture. You may think there's no relief without an operation. Yet...thousands have discovered how to stop this nagging discomfort in minutes—and without surgery! A remarkable compound you use at home makes you feel worlds better, right away! Not only reduces swelling but stops pain at once, promotes healing of inflamed tissues too!

Preparations that just act to "shrink" piles can't offer complete symptomatic relief. For real comfort, fast, you need this more complete medication, called Stainless Pazo. In doctors' tests, patients reported immediate relief of discomfort. That's because Stainless Pazo combines the most effective ingredients known for piles. Thus works 3 ways at once: 1. Anesthetic action stops pain, itching in minutes . . . puts rectal nerves to sleep, thus relaxing muscle spasms that cause discomfort. 2. Reduces tissue swelling, congestion . . . protruding parts shrink. 3. Promotes healing of raw tissues. You get immediate new comfort while Nature's own healing magic goes to work.

Don't suffer needlessly one more day. To sit, stand, walk without pain again, get Stainless Pazo Suppositories or Ointment at druggists. Get glorious relief without surgery or money back!

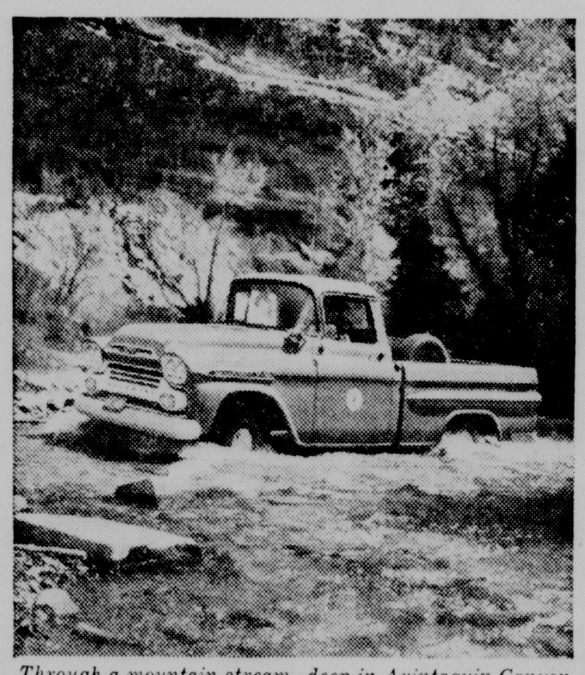
Up a steep mud-choked wash—Positraction pays off!



Through a mountain stream—deep in Avintaquin Canyon.

NO MOUNTAIN CAT, MISTER...
That's a Chevy with Positraction!

That 3134 Fleetside has the sure-footed ways of a big western bobcat. Roams through high brush country that would buck the life out of most trucks. Crosses streams without benefit of a bridge. Climbs talus grades where piñon won't even grow. But that's all routine for this Chevy, equipped with Positraction* rear axle. It's hard at it every day for the Utah Fish and Game commission. Figure about 60,000 miles of mountaineering before this Chevy is traded. And yet the district officer who drives it would bet his badge the tie rods won't even need replacing!

Out in that wild, climbing Utah country, Chevy's suspension and frame and brakes, its Positraction rear axle and Thriftmaster 6 power are proving themselves under rougher conditions than most test engineers could dream up. They're proving that Chevrolet's advanced engineering and design ideas pay off—in spades—when the going gets especially mean and dirty.

Positraction, of course, is a big plus on this job, providing the sure grip needed to dig through mud, snow, loose sand, whatever comes along. Could be that a Positraction-equipped ½-ton pickup is the answer for your area of operation. Or maybe a 4-wheel drive Chevy. We've got trucks that specialize in getting in and out of any kind of country. Talk to your dealer about your needs. He'll show you what tough trucks are made of.

Soviets Said Opening Large-Scale Military Action Against Guerrillas

Vienna (UPI) — Soviet infantry and paratroopers have opened a large-scale action against Ukrainian anti-Communist guerrillas under the guise of border "maneuvers" in the wild mountains of Ukrainia and Slovakia, reliable sources said here Tuesday.

The reports coincided with dispatches to London which said Czechoslovakian authorities had been using flimsy excuses to prevent western diplomats from traveling to Slovakia, the eastern part of the country, which borders on the Soviet Union's Carpatho-Ukraine area.

Unofficial press reports in the last few weeks in European capitals told of disturbances in Eastern Slovakia, on the border of the Soviet Carpatho-Ukraine.

Sources in Vienna said reports from eastern Slovakia showed Russian troop maneuvers began on June 29 near the eastern Slovak cities of Lavoczne and Chustand.

As far as could be determined here, foreigners in Czechoslovakia have been forbidden from traveling east of the river Waag in recent days.

At least 3 times in the last 10 days British diplomats have been turned back from Slovakia with such excuses as "a bridge is down," or "a road is under repair." This was confirmed by the British foreign office.

Sources said they believed the Communists were trying to conceal completely the troop movements against the Ukrainian freedom fighters who are known to have been fighting against Communist rule for decades.

Epidemic Of Polio Strikes Des Moines

...67 Cases Reported

Des Moines (AP)—Thirty-seven of the 67 Des Moines persons who have contracted polio had not been vaccinated for the disease, City Health Director Dr. James F. Speers said Tuesday.

"That's part of the reason why the disease has reached epidemic proportions here," he said. About 70% of the total population under the age of 40 has been vaccinated, Dr. Speers added.

The latest unofficial census lists Des Moines with a population of 177,000.

Three of the 67 persons with polio have died. Forty-five were children between 1 and 10 years old. Ten unconfirmed reports of polio also have been made in the city.

Dr. Speers said the disease probably would hit its peak within 2 or 3 weeks.

County Wheat Crop Disappoints; Fungus, Moisture Take Heavy Toll

Lancaster County's wheat yield was termed "disappointing" Tuesday as the peak days of harvest got under way. Although more wheat was brought in to county elevators Tuesday, elevator operators indicated that the yield and quality were much less than predicted.

According to Assistant County Agent Alan Boettcher, the poor wheat is due to many factors including too much precipitation at the pollination stage and the fungus which affected the root system.

He indicated that the yields were running anywhere from 12 to 30 bushels per acre, and that none were particularly high. The average was testing around 50 pounds, 60 being standard; moisture has been running approximately 12.5 to 13 per cent, but should be 12.5 or below, Boettcher stated.

Farmers Cooperative Elevator Co. at Emerald reported that the wheat loads were coming in rapidly Tuesday with the yield averaging around 20 bushels. On the average, it tested 56 pounds with 12 to 14% moisture.

Farmers Terminal Elevator Co. at Cheney reported yields ranging from 10 to 20 bushels and testing anywhere from 50 to 58 pounds. Moisture ran around 13%.

Wheat brought in to the Lincoln Elevator & Feed Co. tested 57 pounds with 13.5% moisture content, and an average yield of around 20 bushels. Of the approximate 15,000 bushels brought in to Equity Union Grain Co., the average tested about 55 pounds with 13 to 14% moisture.

The peak period should run through Thursday if it doesn't rain, elevator operators indicated.

Herter Holds Last Geneva Strategy Talk

Washington (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter started a final round of strategy talks before returning to Geneva for a last-ditch effort to crack the deadlock with Russia over Berlin's future.

Herter came back to his State Department desk after a 5-day Fourth of July weekend rest at his summer home in Beverly, Mass.

Brushing aside all questions about prospects for agreement with Russia, Herter gave no outward clue about how he hoped to save the Geneva East-West talks from collapsing in failure.

Top associates said, however, Herter has no new concessions to offer the Soviets. They said the next move, if the Geneva sessions are to lead to a summit conference, is up to the Kremlin.

Herter will fly back to Geneva on Saturday. He and the foreign ministers of Britain, France and Russia will resume their talks that bogged down 3 weeks ago.

Rails Lead Stocks As Rise Continues

New York (AP)— A rally by rails confirmed the advance by industrials and the stock market Tuesday climbed to another record high, its third in a row.

A late buying wave carried the list upward decisively and added an estimated $1,689,000,000 to the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the rise in the Associated Press average.

The market was mixed for most of the day as profits were taken. Only the rails stood out as gainers from start to finish.

The AP 60-stock average rose $1.30 to a record $233.50 with the industrials up $1.60 to a record, the rails up $1.80 to a high for this year and the utilities up 20 cents.

The Dow Jones industrial average rose 3.12 to a record 663.21.

Of 1,243 issues traded, 529 advanced and 493 declined. There were 93 new highs for the year and 14 new lows.

Volume increased to 3,840,000 shares from 3,720,000 Monday and was the largest since May 11 when 3,860,000 shares were traded.

Ten of the 15 most active stocks advanced, four declined and one was unchanged, Colorado Fuel & Iron.

Corporate bonds were mixed in moderate trading.

Long range U.S. government bonds declined.

Bond sales totaled $5,500,000 par value.

AP COMMODITY INDEX

New York — The Associated Press weighted wholesale price index of 35 commodities declined to 171.64.

CHICAGO

Trade was slow most of the time Tuesday in the butcher hog market and prices were steady to 25 cents lower.

With shipper demand not more than moderate, the market barely hit a $16.25 top, equal to the peak of Monday. The 9,000 head on sale brought the offerings for the first two days this week to 17,500, compared with 21,000 for the same period last week.

Buyers paid $16.00-16.25 for only a few lots of 210-220 lb. No. 1 grade but they bid $15.75-16.00 a little more freely for the 200-220 lb. No. 1s and mixed 1s and 2s. The 190-220 lb. mixed 1-3 grades went at $15.65-15.85 and the 180-190 lbs. weights of the same grades at $14.75-15.75. The 23-240 lb 1 and 2s were $15.50-15.75, the 190-240 lb. 2s and 3s $15.25-15.65.

Heavier weights were scarce and cleared at $14.00-15.50 while sows moved at $9.50-13.00 with that class mostly steady.

The market for slaughter steers and heifers was weak to 75 cents lower on a slow demand. The $30.50 top was paid for one load of 1,225 lb. prime grain steers while mixed choice, high choice prime grades sold at $28.50-29.75. Good to average choice kids were $26.00-28.25, the standard to low good $24.00-25.50.

About 500 head still were unsold at the close.

Good and choice heifers went at $25.00-28.00.

Vealers and bulls were steady at $33.00 for good and choice vealers and $22.50-25.50 for utility and commercial bulls.

An active demand for spring lambs brought $23.00-25.00 for good and choice grades, as much as $1 higher than the previous close.

Hogs: 9,000; steady to 25 lower; No. 2-3 mixed grades 190-240 lbs. 15.25-15.65; few lots No. 1-2, 230-240 lbs. 15.50-15.75; few lots No. 3, 220-240 lbs. 15.00-15.25; several hundred mixed No. 1-2-3, 190-220 lbs. 15.65-15.85; several hundred mixed No. 1-2, 200-20 lbs. 15.75-16.00; few lots No. 1, 200-220 lbs. 16.00-16.25.

Cattle: 6,500, calves 100; slaughter steers and heifers weak to 50 lower; vealers steady; load prime 1225 lb. steers 30.50; high choice and mixed choice and prime 28.50-29.75; good to average choice 26.00-28.25; good and choice heifers 25.00-28.00; vealers 33.00 down.

$40 Billion Defense Measure Approved

. . . By Senate Appropriations Committee

Washington (AP) — The Senate Appropriations Committee Tuesday approved a 40 billion dollar defense money bill for the fiscal year that started July 1. It sticks pretty close to the overhauled version carved out by a subcommittee a week ago.

Included in this biggest of the yearly spending bills was $39,594,349,000 of new cash plus authority to transfer 450 million dollars in funds previously voted. The bill contains 345 million dollars more cash and 121 million more in transfer funds than President Eisenhower asked.

It provides 746 million dollars more in new cash and 29 million more in transfer than the House voted.

The bill puts added emphasis on both long-range missiles and forces for limited wars, ignoring recommendations by both Eisenhower and Pentagon leaders.

AF Gains a Point

However, the Air Force gained a point in the committee. It voted to knock out the ban written on production of Mace missiles. The committee voted to permit production of limited numbers if the Air Force can find the funds.

A move by Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La) to boost the size of the Army to 900,000 from the planned ceiling of 870,000 was beaten by an 11-7 vote. It would have added 132 million dollars to the bill. Ellender said he lost because so many members were absent from the closed-door session. The committee has 27 members.

The senators went along with the subcommittee in approving manpower of 200,000 for the Marine Corps, instead of 175,000, as asked by the administration and approved by the House. They also put a mandatory floor under the Army, reserve and the National Guard.

Included in the bill is 380 million dollars for a new nuclear powered aircraft carrier. The administration had asked for a conventional one costing 120 million dollars less. The House had voted to give the Navy no carrier.

The bill probably will be brought up on the Senate floor next week.

Long Is Termed Very Ill

Governor Cancels Press Conference

Baton Rouge, La. (UPI)— A close political associate conceded Tuesday that Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long is "very ill."

The associate, Robert Angelle, said, however, that Long can regain his health and said friends are urging Long to take a vacation. The 63-year-old governor, committed to a mental hospital by his wife last month, is suffering from a heart condition, fatigue, a nervous condition and a possible stroke.

But he has maintained a hectic pace in recent weeks, defying doctors' warnings against going on a 4th of July stump tour to open what he said was his campaign for an unprecedented 4th term as governor. He felt ill after 4 speeches, went to his Winnfield, La., farm for the weekend and returned to the state capital here Monday night.

Called Off

Long had scheduled a press conference Tuesday afternoon, but an aide announced the governor had canceled the meeting and hoped to schedule another Wednesday.

Angelle, speaker of the Louisiana House, called at the executive mansion but said he did not see the governor. Long was in his bedroom, Angelle said, and was reported "a little weaker . . . a little fatigued." An aide said Long slept most of the day.

Two New Rabies Cases Reported; State Toll 22

The State Dept. of Health Tuesday reported two cases of rabies, bringing the state total for the year to 22 compared to 11 for the same time last year.

The cases reported were a dog in Cedar County and a skunk in Holt County.

Also reported to the State Health Dept. were 3 cases of Salmonellosis, an intestinal infection from food and usually not fatal. All 3 cases were reported from Scotts Bluff County. There were no such cases last year, and one in 1957.

One case of Brucellosis, in Douglas County, brought the total to 12 for the year compared to 20 at the same time las year.

Omaha Faces $10.5 Million Bond Issue

. . . Next Spring

Omaha (AP) — Mayor John Rosenblatt says a $10.5 million bond issue will be put before voters in the spring.

Rosenblatt said the bonds can be issued without an increase in the property tax levy.

The biggest share of the bonds — $7.25 million — would finance a South Omaha sewage treatment plant.

Storm sewers to relieve flood problems in many sections of the city would take $2 million.

The remaining $1.25 million would be used for swimming pools, fire stations, golf course, library facilities and South Omaha police station renovation.

Oceans Eyed

Washington (UPI) — The Senate Commerce Committee moved to help the United States keep up with Russia in oceanic research.

The committee, headed by Chairman Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash), approved a resolution calling for immediate expansion of "ocean wide and bottom deep studies" of the oceans in the interest of national defense, fishing and foreign commerce.

Magnuson said in a statement the studies were badly needed because Russia "is spying on us from the oceans." He said the Soviets were operating the world's largest research fleet and have charted Pacific waters up to the 3-mile limit off the west coast.

Hoffa Accused Of Undercutting Bargaining Demands Of Eastern Locals

Washington (AP) — Charges that James R. Hoffa has undercut East Coast Teamsters unions in their negotiations for higher wages were aired Tuesday before the Senate Rackets Committee.

The allegations came from witnesses who represented employer truck lines at the collective bargaining table and from members of Hoffa's Teamsters union.

Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy told the senators the testimony showed Hoffa was fearful that higher wages for East Coast teamsters would make contracts he negotiated in the midwest look bad in comparison.

Several witnesses testified that eastern truck drivers' wage rates are higher than those Hoffa negotiated for drivers in midwest unions.

Hoffa, who lives in Detroit, was chairman of the Teamsters Central Conference before becoming international president.

Ted Daley, secretary-treasurer of Teamsters Local No. 445 in Yonkers, N.Y. testified that Hoffa last year used his powers as union president to soften demands the union had made against Anchor Motor Freight Lines of Cleveland.

The company does a big auto hauling business in New York and other East Coast areas.

Daley swore he had heard Patrick J. O'Neill, assistant to the Anchor Company's president, boast that "he had Hoffa in his back pocket."

O'Neill denied having made the remark, and said he heard no one else make it either.

Daley said Hoffa stepped into negotiations between Local 445 and Anchor Freight and wrote a contract which carried lower benefits than the local had demanded. He did not give details.

Daley said Hoffa withheld sanction for a strike the union had threatened to back up its demands.

Hoffa has been described in testimony as an associate in some business ventures of Anchor Motor Freight's Detroit labor consultant, Carney Matheson.

Joseph M. Adelizzi, a labor consultant to an organization of New York truck lines, testified that Hoffa in 1954 tried to undercut wage demands by New York Teamsters unions. He said they stood fast and got what they demanded despite Hoffa.

State Totals Still Going Up

Valuation abstracts from two more counties, Lancaster and Keith, have hiked the actual value of all tangible property (except railroads) in 65 of the state's 93 counties to $6,100,764,114 an increase of $268,956,114 over the amount reported last year.

Keith County was the only new county processed through State Tax Commissioner Fred Herrington's office Tuesday, but the Lancaster County figures were obtained from Lancaster County Assessor Arthur Davis.

Franklin County Tuesday sent a correction to Herrington's office on previous report it had made on Class A and B intangibles. The county added $2,276,856 in Class A intangibles, and $702,702 in Class B intangibles.

This brings the total for 84 counties (Blaine County has not yet reported its intangibles) to $381,076,725 for Class A intangibles, an increase of $98,128,378 over the amount reported last year.

The 84-county total for Class B intangibles jumped to $281,964,223, compared with $136,718,934 reported last year, an increase of $145,245,289.

Nance County's abstract was delivered to the Tax Commissioner's office late Tuesday, but was not processed. This leaves 7 counties whose abstracts have not yet been published: Dawson, Dodge, Douglas, Gage, Jefferson, Platte and Scotts Bluff.
